So a young, femme, gay leftist just presented you with this zine. Or perhaps one of her comrades did. Or someone who wants to mock her did. Regardless, somehow you got access to this, and now you're wondering... why the f*ck are you looking at a Pro-Life zine?

This isn't just any Pro-Life zine; this is a progressive, feminist zine. It's an anthology of facts, quotes, and ideas from a variety of sources– including some Pro-Choice ones! The goal of this zine is to debunk false facts, center diverse women's voices, and pull on common threads between progressive ideology and Consistent Life Ethic. Only open-minded people will read to the end. Are you up for the challenge?

newwavefeminists The question that's always missing here tho is, "Why do we need abortion in order to be successful?" And the answer is patriarchy. That's all it offers us because we live in a world built by men, FOR men. We have to terminate our pregnancies in order to operate fully in a male-normative society and not inconvenience these patriarchal systems unwilling to change because that would requiring stepping up and supporting women better. Only then would we not have to choose between our children and our careers. We shouldn't have to sacrifice our children for success. These oppressive structures need to be smashed, not our fertility.

Fun fact: The Turnaway Study, which The Media heralded for its statistic that above 95% of women don't regret their abortions, ALSO reported that 95% of women denied abortions don't regret not having one. The angle information is framed depends on who is profiting from it. Always read the receipts.

"Abortions prevent maternal deaths."

Many doctors have gone on the record to say that there has never been an instance where they were unable to try and save the life of both the child and mother. Birth is actually recommended over abortion in most circumstances due to risk of infection.

Timely and sufficient prenatal care can also circumvent many forseeable complications. Further, true pregnancy terminations (distinct from abortion as the fetus dies indirectly, not intentionally, as a result of the procedure) are not outlawed.

Every abortion bill passed thusfar has protections for medically necessary procedures.

What is the treatment to reverse the abortion pill?
A medical professional will prescribe progesterone, which has been safely used in pregnancy for over 50 years.

@youhavealternatives

On the subject of autonomy:
I hope it's upsetting to everyone that access to the abortion-reversal pill has not expanded with access to the abortion pill.

If you don't know, the abortion pill is actually 2 pills. If you only take the first pill and want to make a different choice, you can take the reversal pill and have around a 55% chance of continuing the pregnancy vs. completing the initiated miscarriage.

When people only take the first pill WITHOUT TAKING THE SECOND OR A REVERSAL PILL, they often experience life-threatening side effects.

For this reason, the reversal pill cannot be studied through double-blind placebo trials. Taking the first of the 2 abortion pills ALONE is dangerous to the pregnant person.

BUT, as stated above, doctors have known the reversal pill to be safe for almost 50 years and studies without a placebo support this.

This is a matter of choice. You shouldn't feel forced to take the second abortion pill when a known safe alternative is available. Knowledge about and access to the reversal pill must be expanded.

Illegal abortions aren't necessarily unsafe!

Legal abortions aren't necessarily safe!

Safe abortions aren't necessarily legal!

Unsafe abortions aren't necessarily illegal!

Maternal & Infant Mortality

Further, Lampen purports that “it is hard to know how many patients died from illegal abortion in the pre-Roe landscape,” but we do know that in countries where abortion is illegal, women rarely die. She then claims that “4.7 to 13.2 percent of the world’s annual maternal deaths are attributable to unsafe abortions,” but the study abstract she cites reports that those deaths are attributable to abortions, full stop. Unsafe abortions aren’t necessarily illicit. Furthermore, the study defines the “abortion” category to include “induced abortions, miscarriage, and ectopic pregnancy.”

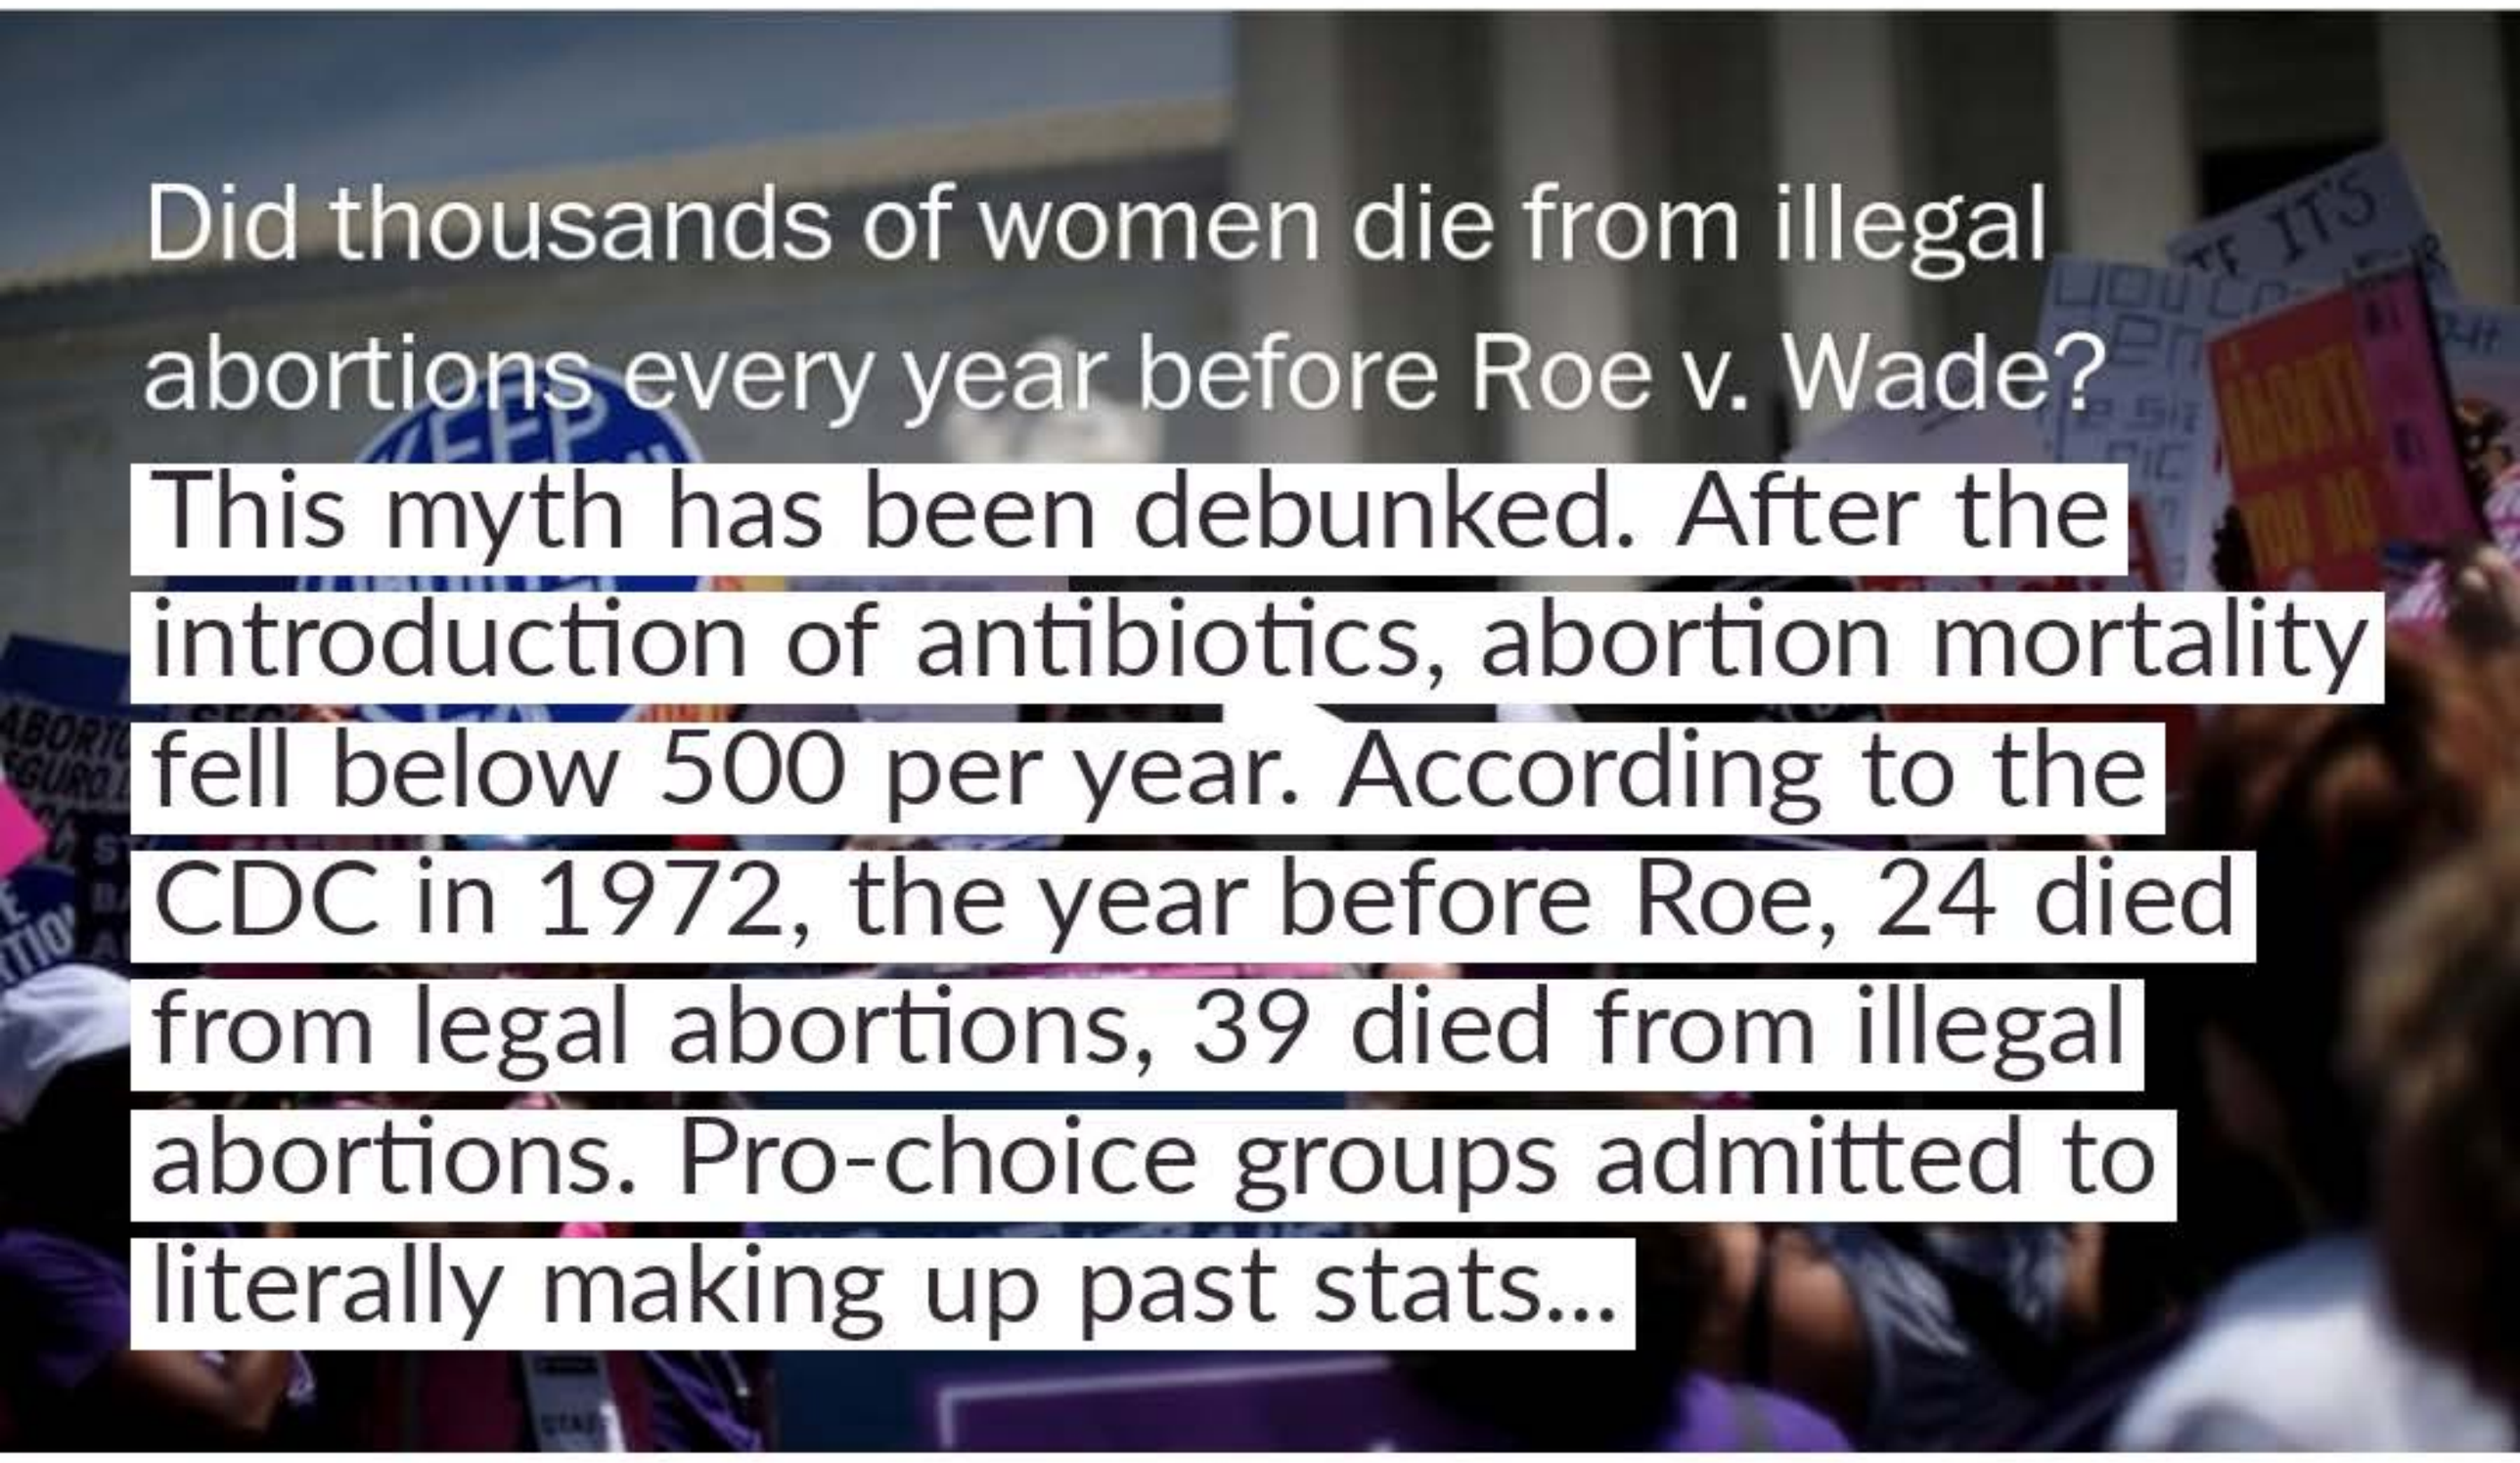
Planned Parenthood's false stat: 'Thousands' of women died every year before Roe



Did thousands of women die from illegal abortions every year before Roe v. Wade?
This myth has been debunked. After the introduction of antibiotics, abortion mortality fell below 500 per year. According to the CDC in 1972, the year before Roe, 24 died from legal abortions, 39 died from illegal abortions. Pro-choice groups admitted to literally making up past stats...

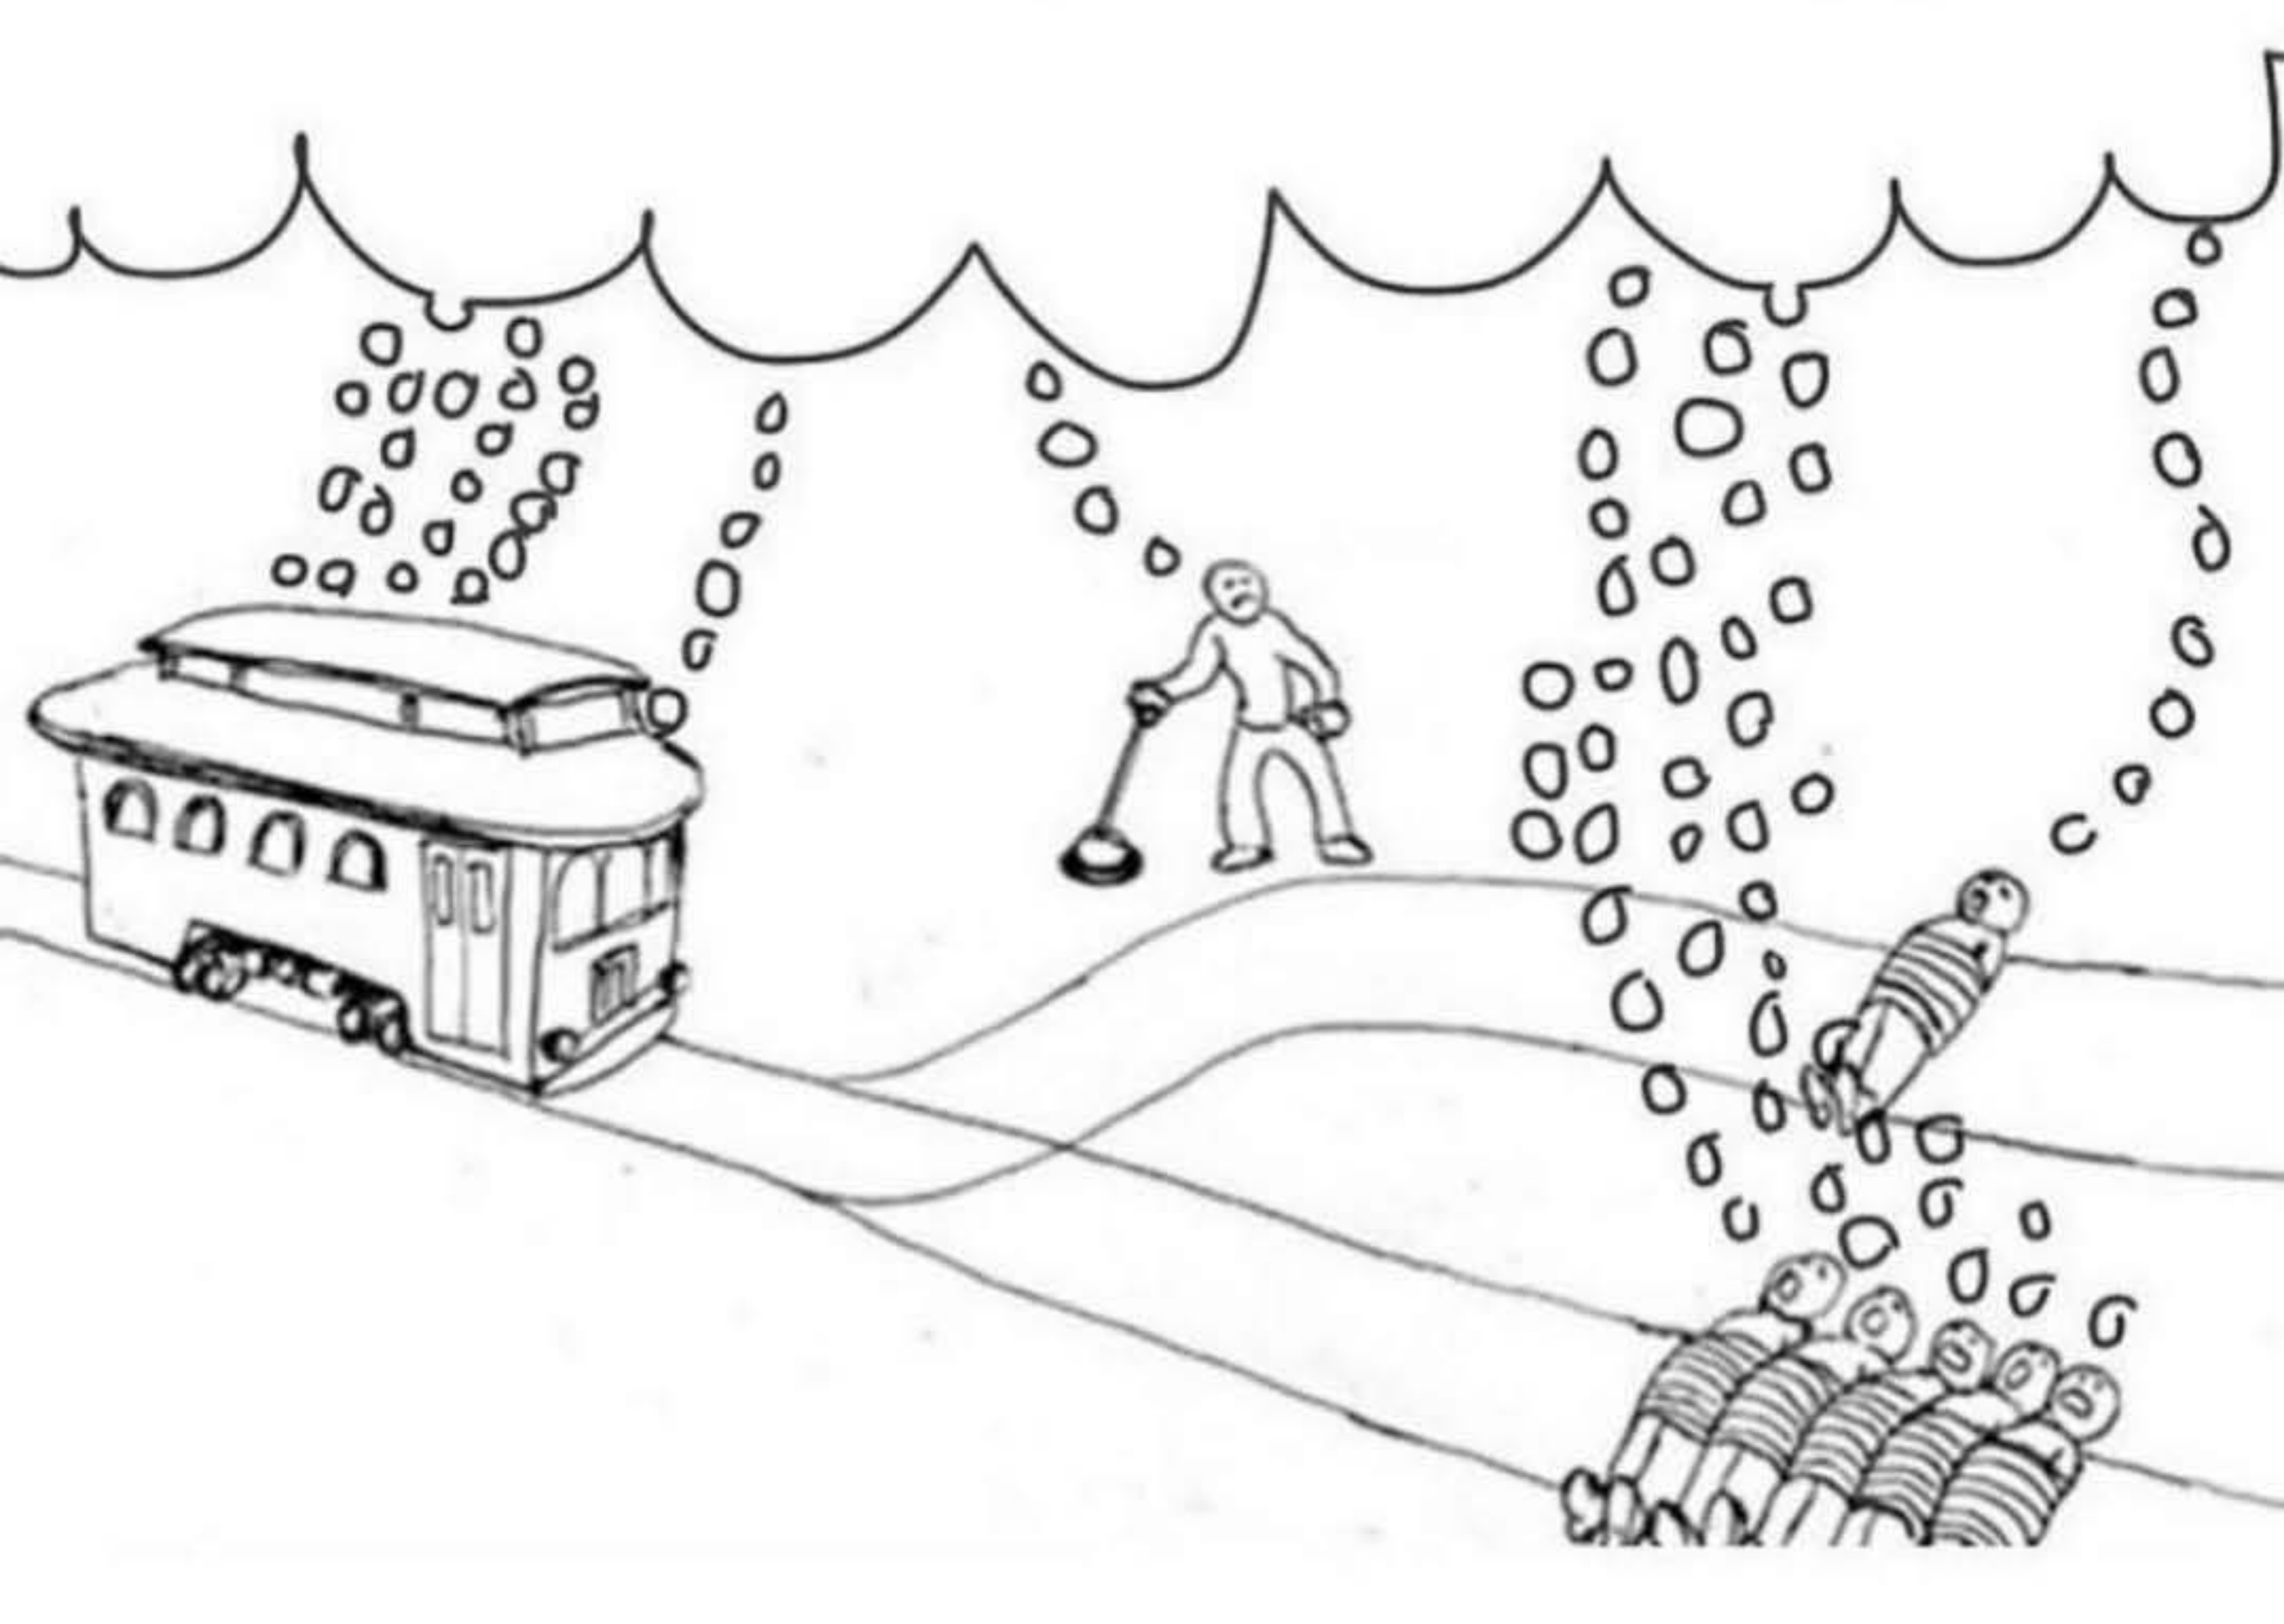
These are rarely either/or problems.
Let's talk about both/and solutions.

Did you know Judith Jarvis Thomson, the author of The Violinist thought experiment, also solved The Trolley Problem?

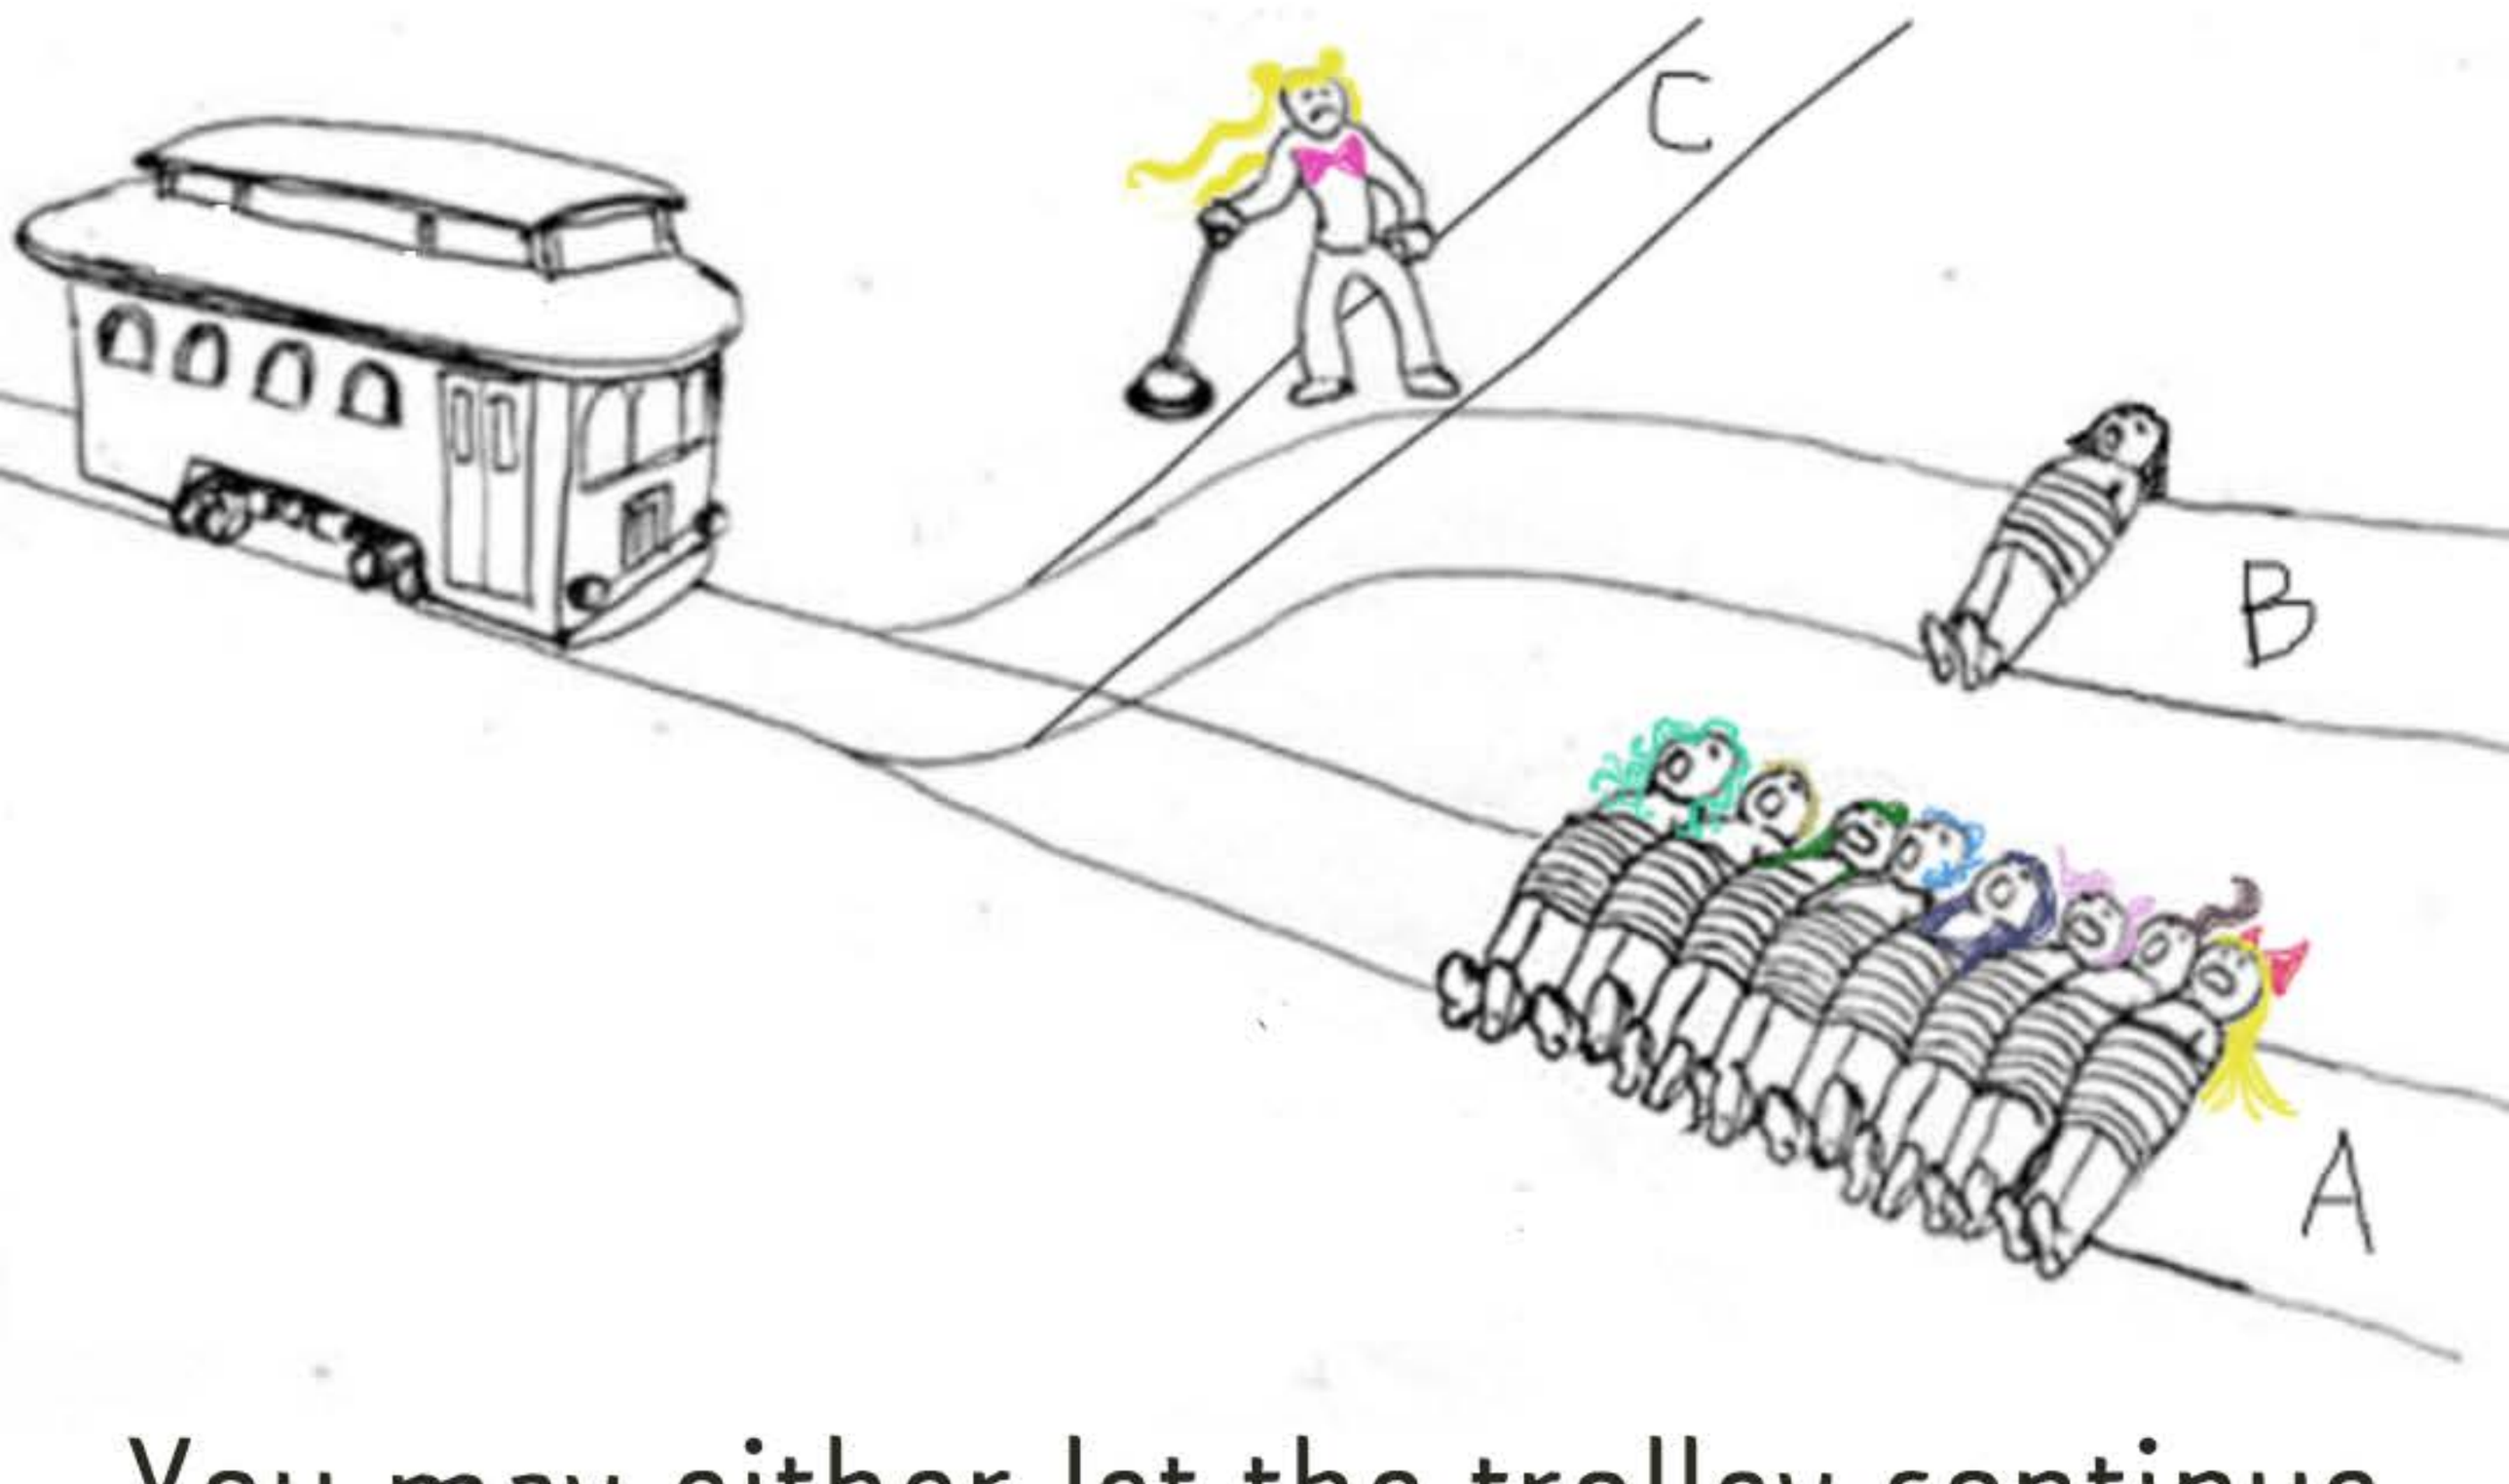
i am the most fuckable person in this trolley problem



She did this by adding a third track...

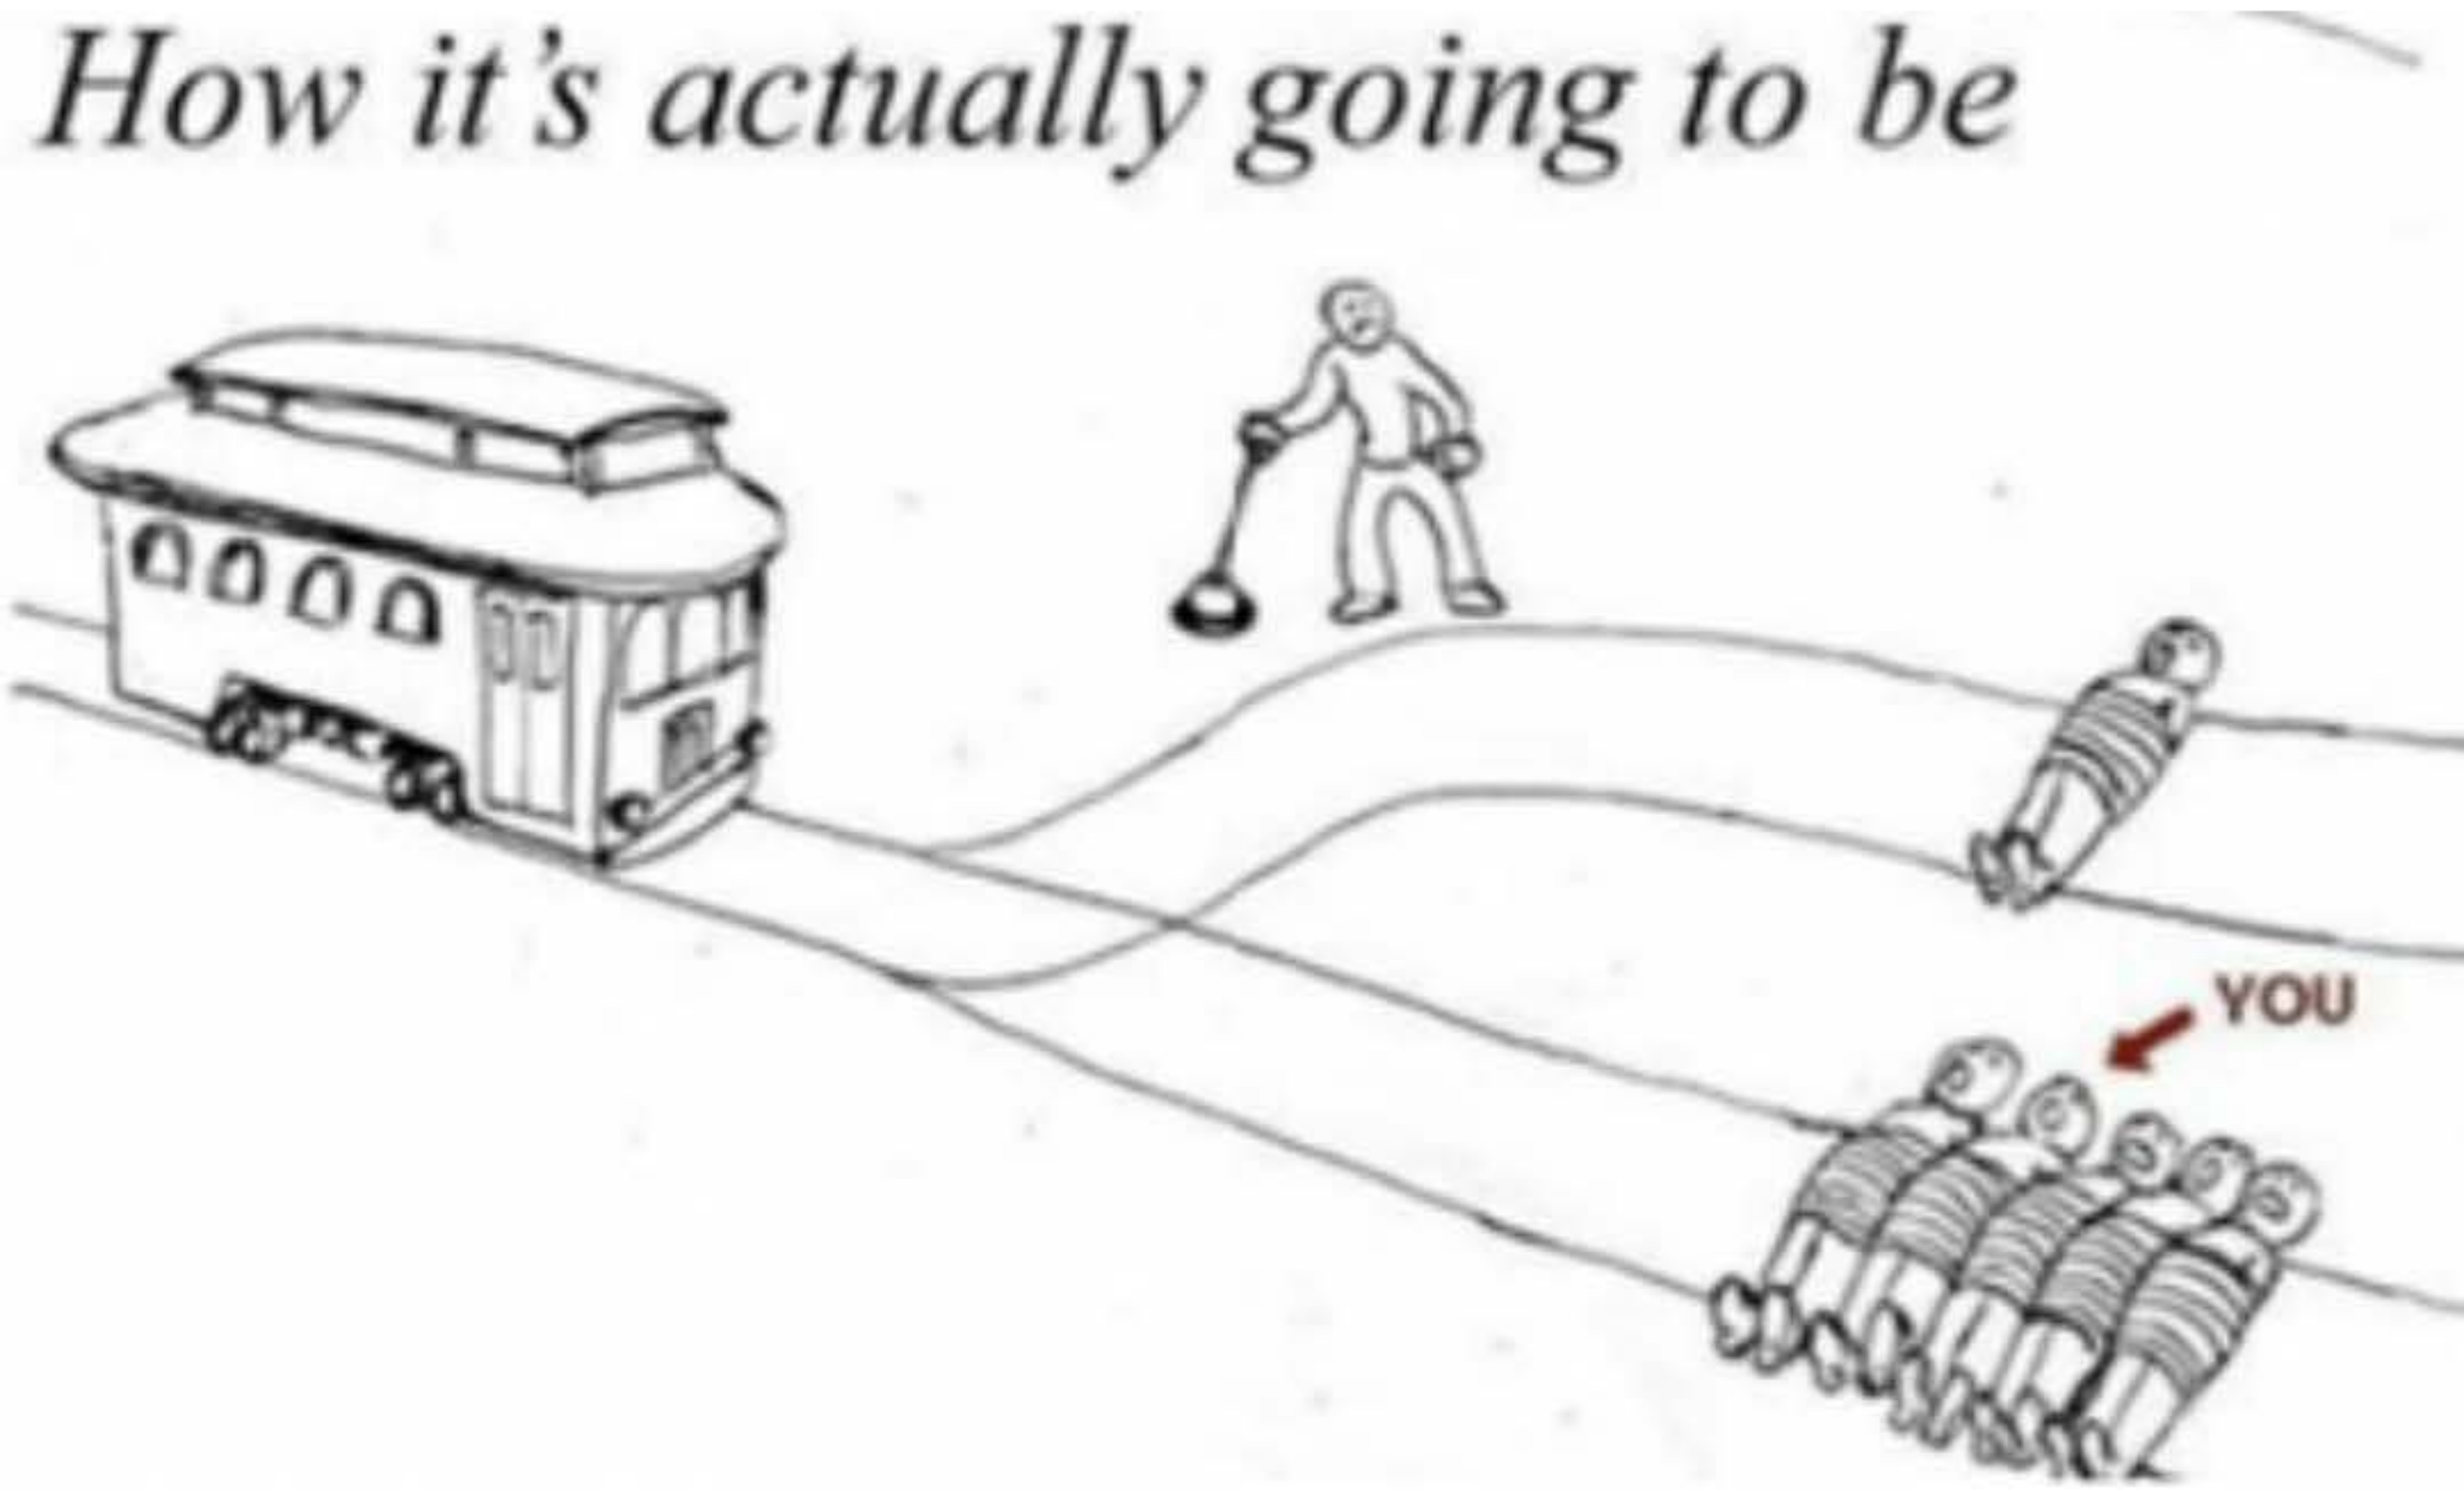
... and putting YOU on it.

The solution?



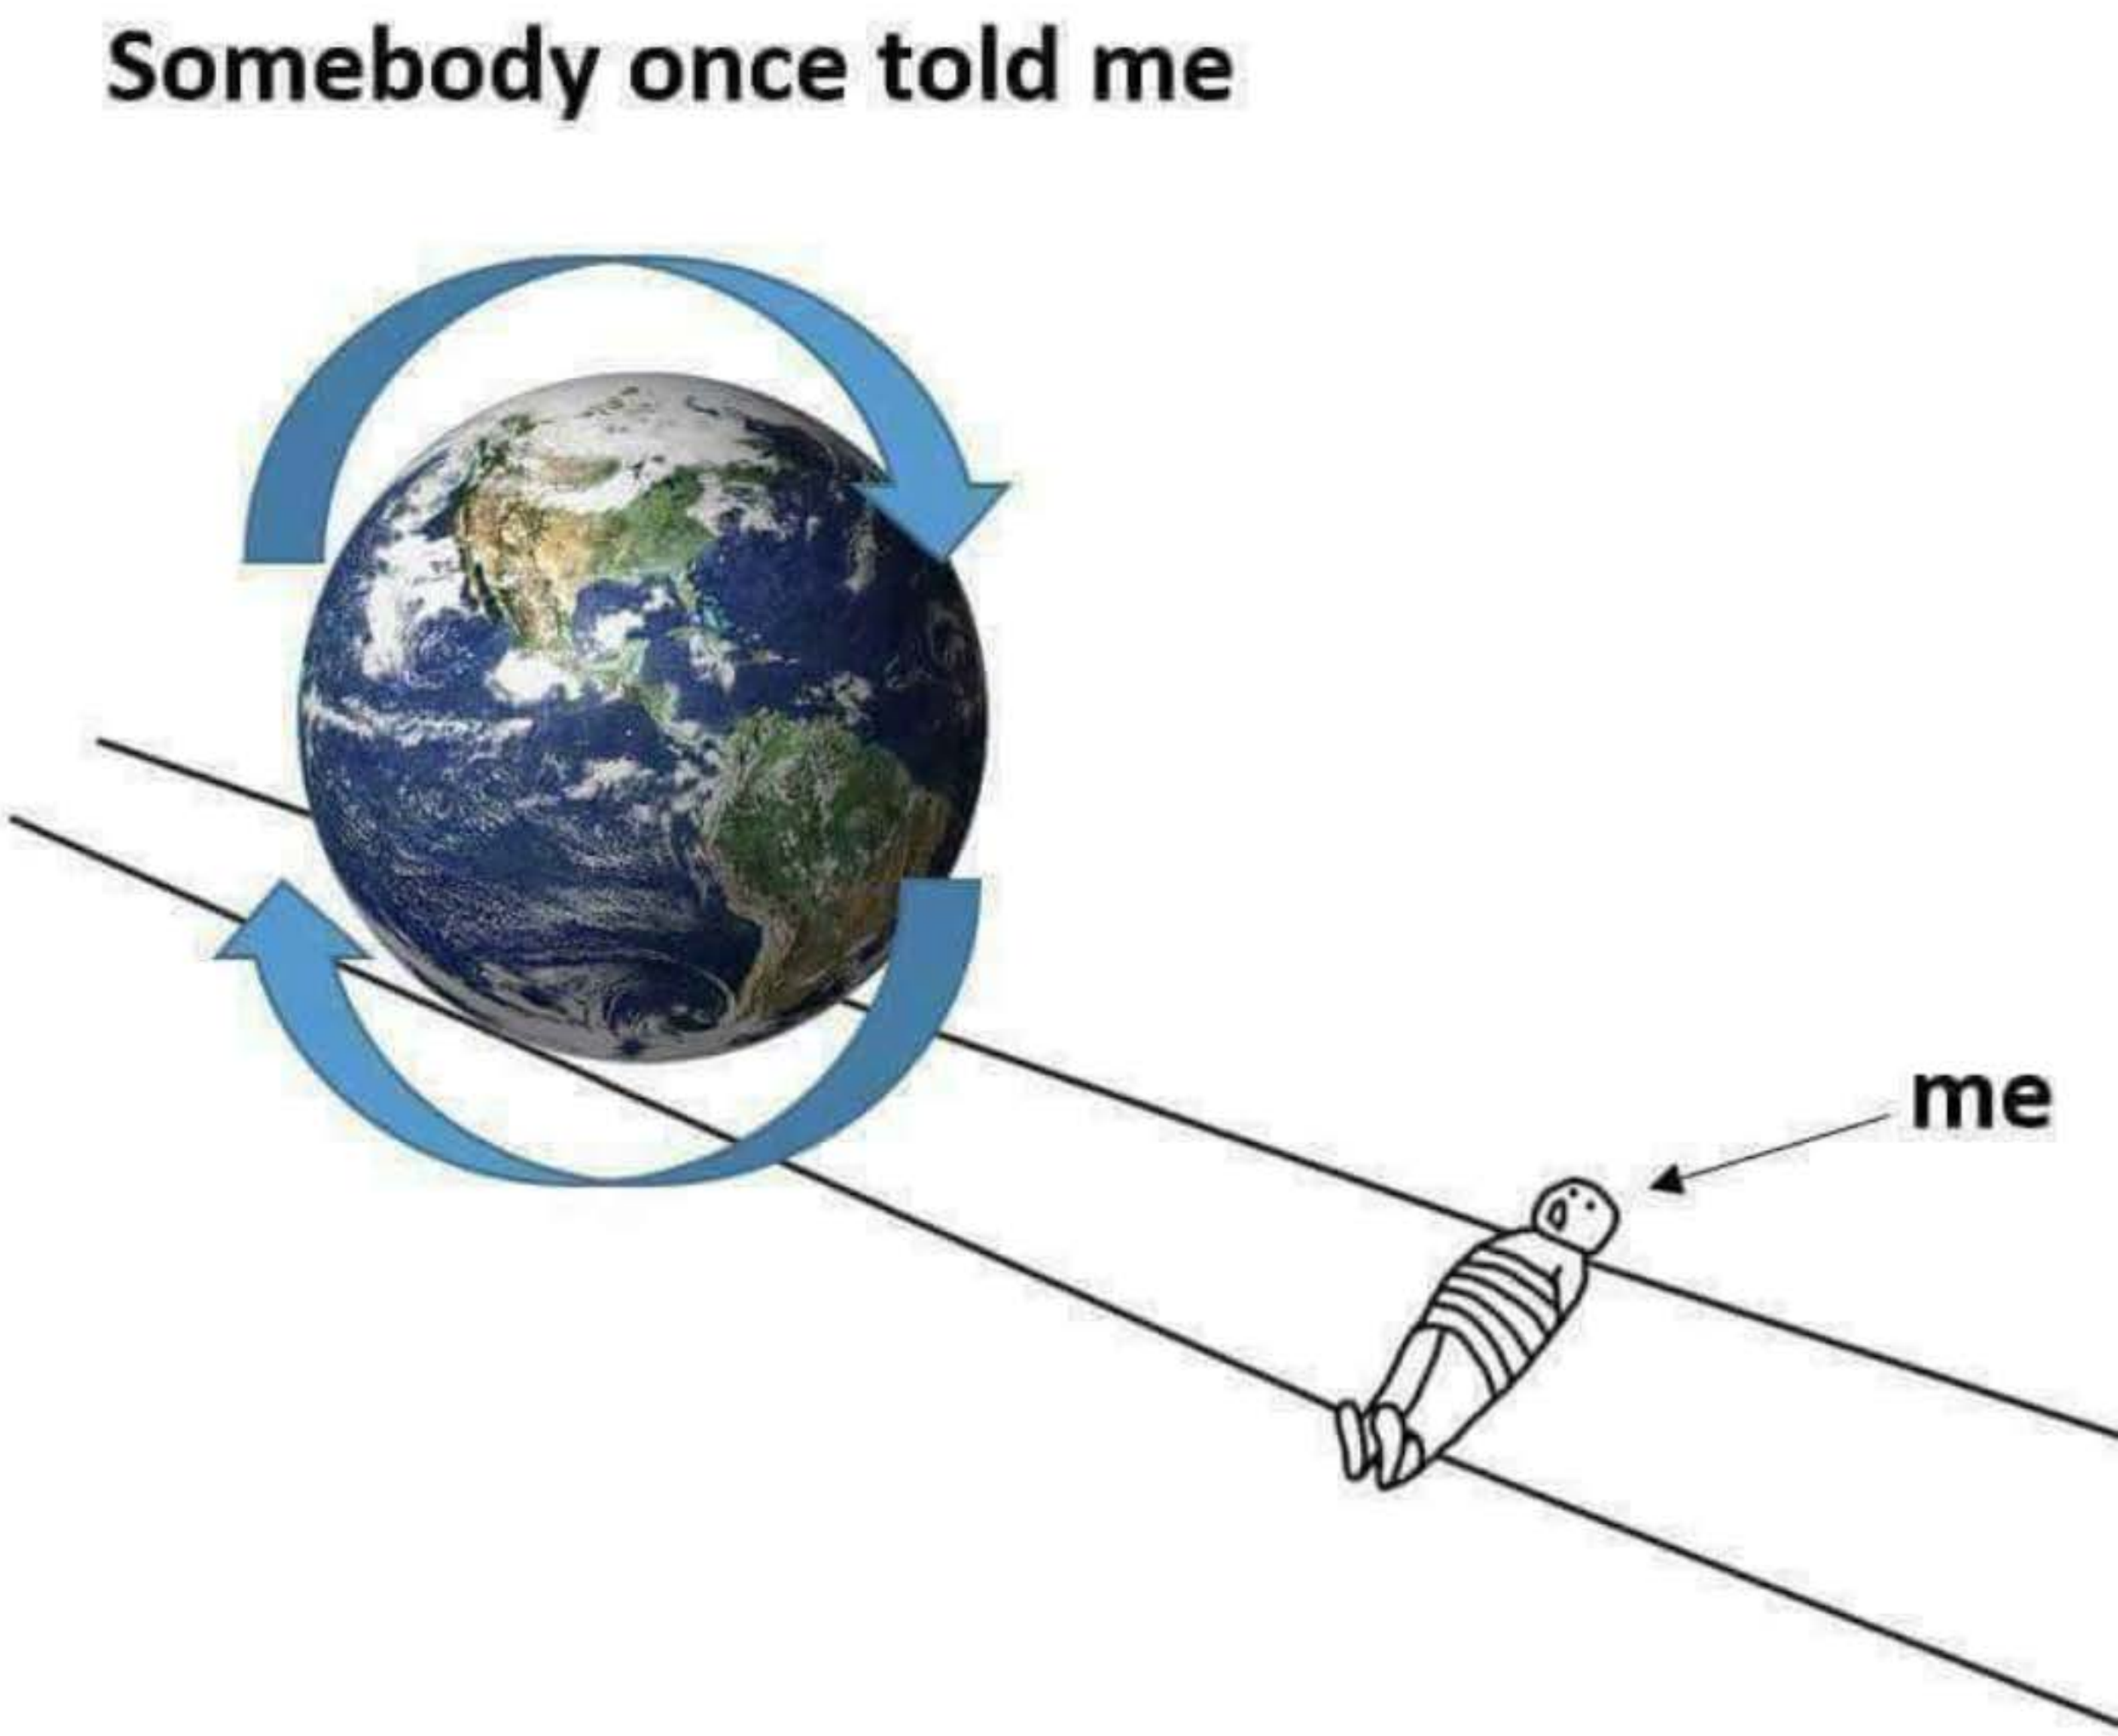
You may either let the trolley continue onto Path A, letting many die, or turn the trolley onto your path. You may NOT turn the trolley to kill the one, because your negative duty to refrain from killing others outweighs your positive duty to keep others alive.

Did you know that the original author of The Trolley Problem, Philippa Foσt, wrσte it as a thought experiment about abortion?

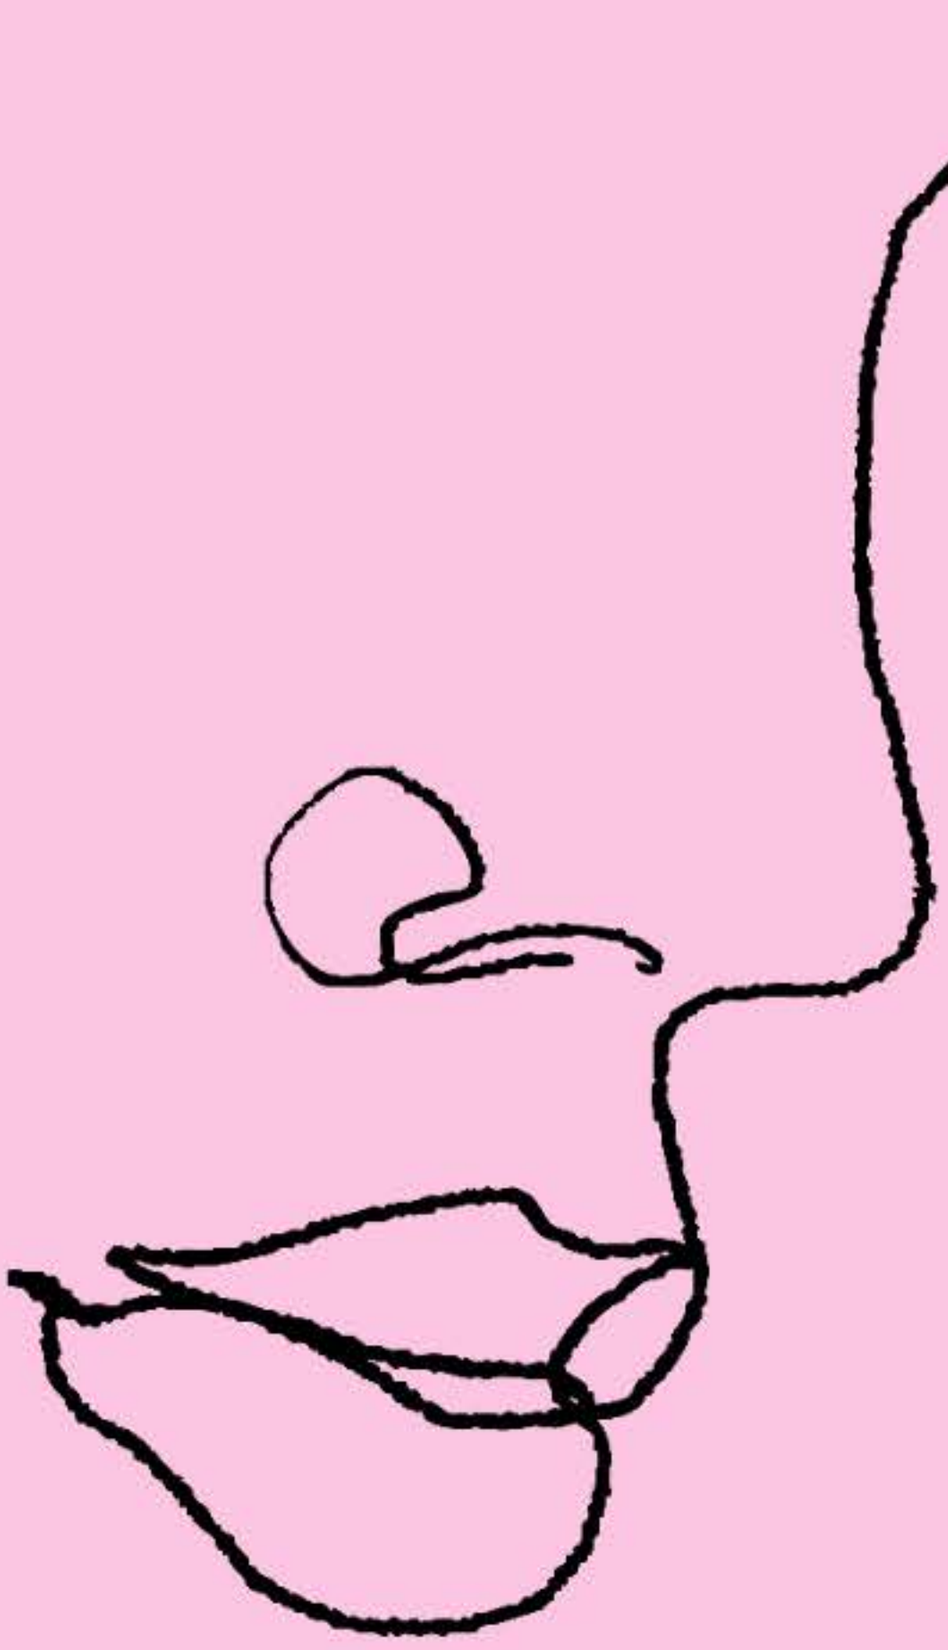


The life of the mσther & the preborn are of equal intrinsic value. I think asking "is it ok to pull the lever and kill the child" is the wrong question. I want to know: WHY HAVEN'T WE FIXED THE TROLLEY'S BRAKES YET??

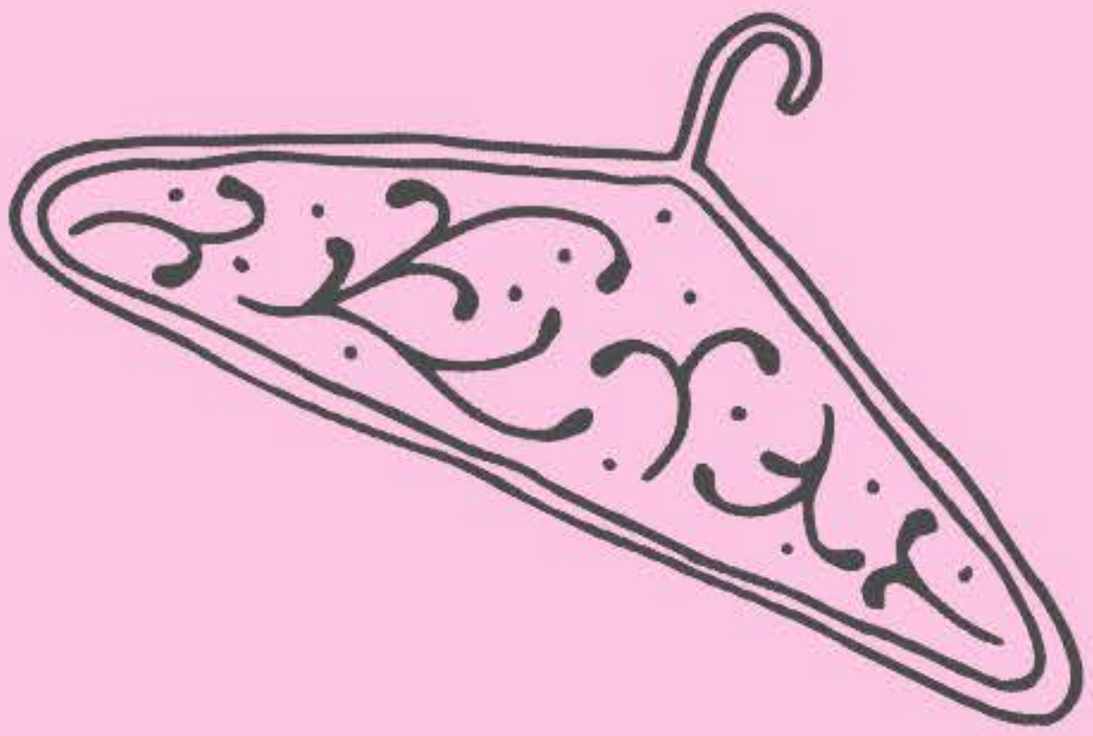
Pregnancy does not have to destroy women's lives. This, like brake failure, is preventable.



We must demand a world that works for families, and especially for mothers. I want to live in a world in which pregnancy is RARELY a crisis.



WHY WE FEAR UNSAFE ABORTIONS:



A) WE BELIEVE IN WOMEN'S HYSTERIA AND DON'T TRUST THEM NOT TO MAKE RECKLESS DECISIONS BECAUSE THEY NEED A MEDICAL PROCEDURE TO FIX THEIR UTERUS

B) WE SUSPECT WOMEN OFTEN TURN TO ABORTION UNDER PRESSURE OR PRETENSE AND THIS COERCION COMPELS INORDINATE HEALTH RISKS

C) WE CONCEDE THAT THIS COERCION DISABLES WOMEN FROM GIVING INFORMED, POSITIVE CONSENT TO ABORTION

OR... WE COULD TRUST WOMEN TO KNOW AND ACT UPON WHAT IS SAFE FOR THEIR BODIES, REGARDLESS OF ABORTION ACCESS.

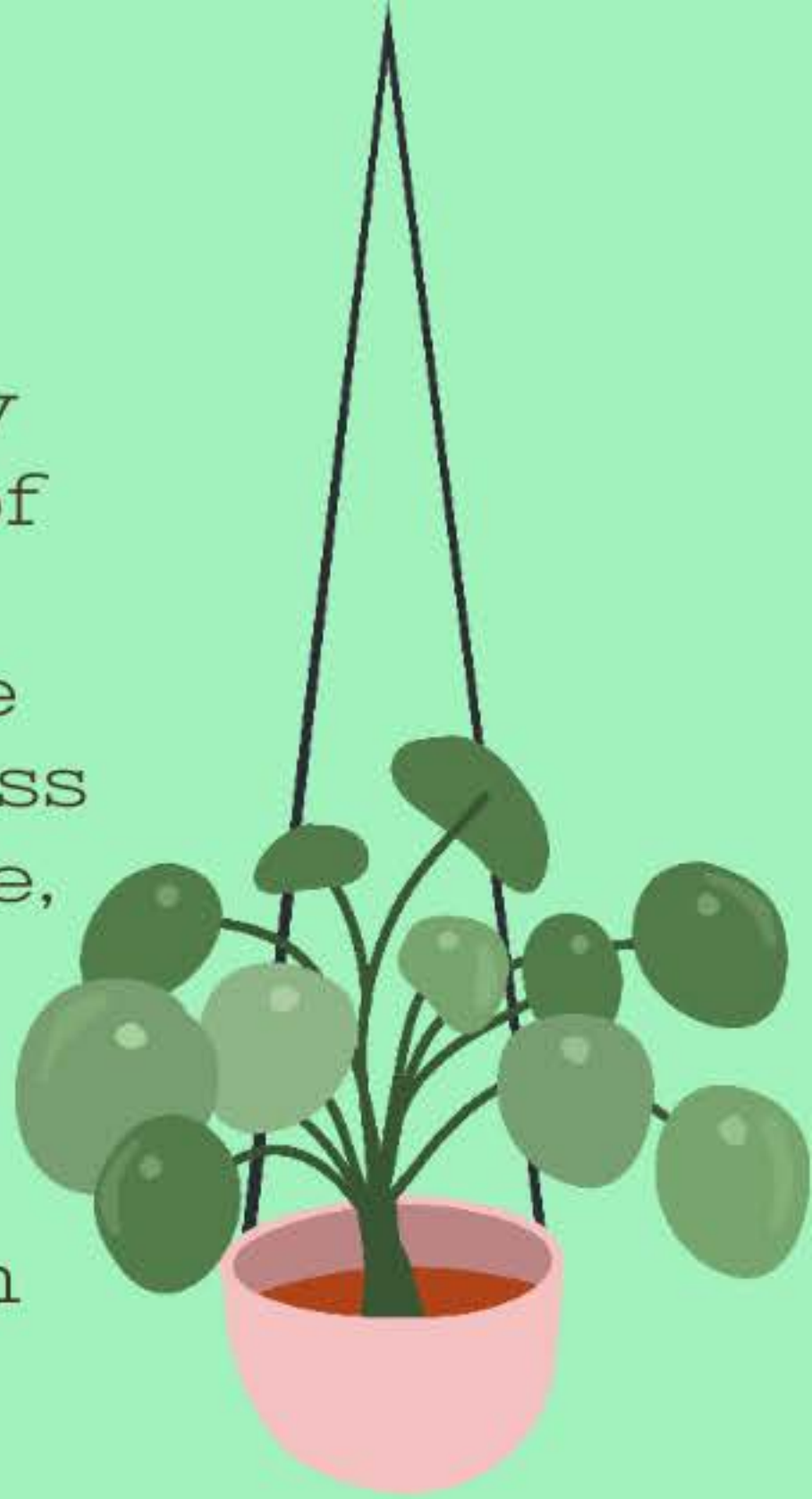
If the police were to march into a working class community to take away the pregnant women to a hospital and force them to undergo an abortion, everyone would be up in arms over this outrage. Yet when the ruling class sets things up economically to have the same effect, many so-called leftists even encourage this outrage.

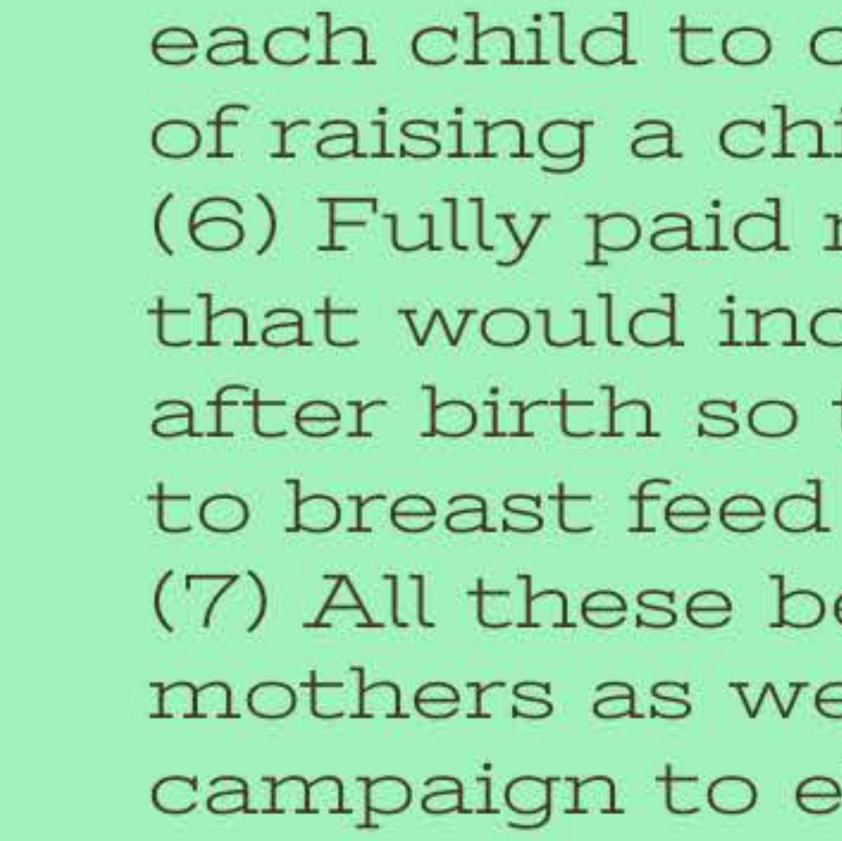
Economics is the major force oppressing the working class. Free abortion is equivalent to forced abortion of millions of working class kids. Far from a step toward the liberation of women, this is another horrible oppressive chain around our necks.

The fact that free abortion has been represented as the primary demand to end the oppression of women shows how divorced the "women's movement" is from the daily reality of most working class women's lives (who are, of course, the vast majority of women).

If we are talking about a "women's right to choose" then the following demands are much more relevant to making the choice "freer":



(1) More money, more time for families to spend together, less outlay for child care
(2) Equal pay for women workers, an end to discrimination in hiring.
(3) Free child care for all working mothers including infant care.
(4) Fully paid maternity benefits in all health plans and for all welfare recipients that would also include a cash stipend to cover non-hospital expenses of having a baby.
(5) Multiply the income tax deduction for each child to closely reflect the actual cost of raising a child.
(6) Fully paid maternity leave for all mothers that would include a long enough period after birth so that those women who choose to breast feed their babies could do so.
(7) All these benefits be available to single mothers as well with an educational campaign to eliminate the "stigma."
(8) Multiply welfare benefits so that they closely reflect the actual cost of rearing a family in the current era.



If we won these reforms, then free abortions would no longer be forced abortions.

Destiny Herndon-De La Rosa
Agnostic & Feminist

"I honestly don't believe our federal government actually WANTS to make abortion illegal - Republicans need it to stay a main issue to remain in office. Plus, it's much easier (and cheaper) to subsidise an industry that can offer a low-income single mom a $500 abortion (and keep it legal), when the alternative is having to potentially offer up to eighteen years of government aid for what is, by definition, an unplanned pregnancy... legality is actually the lowest goal we could be shooting for. We have a system that was not designed to accommodate female fertility. Period. Not in academia, nor the workforce. And while everyone's busy talking about politics, and donating all of their money to campaigns, women and children continue to fall through the cracks of a system that was NEVER designed for them... That shows me that the most effective thing I can do as a pro-life feminist is work to create the life-sustaining society that would allow women and their children to thrive."

Of economically vulnerable people, 42 percent want abortion legal only in certain cases, while 50 percent of those with economic privilege do. But wait for this one: 1 in 4 economically vulnerable people want abortion banned altogether, while only 1 in 10 economically privileged people want the same.

In addition, in every circumstance in the same Gallup poll, people of color were more anti-abortion than were non-Hispanic whites.

The differences were even more stark when asked about whether they identify as pro-life or pro-choice. Economically vulnerable people were +11 percentage points to the pro-life side while economically privileged people were +24 to the pro-choice side. Slightly more people of color identify as pro-life than pro-choice, while the opposite is true for non-Hispanic whites.

Those who are most likely to oppose abortion are the very folks more likely to be structurally coerced into abortion.

ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED WOMEN GET HIT WITH THE PROVERBIAL DOUBLE WHAMMY WHEN IT COMES TO ABORTION. THEY ARE MUCH MORE ANTI-ABORTION, ON AVERAGE, THAN THOSE IN MORE PRIVILEGED CLASSES. BUT THEY ARE ALSO MUCH MORE AT RISK FROM INTERRELATED STRUCTURAL PRESSURES THAT LEAD TO MANY ABORTIONS: INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE, FOOD INSECURITY, LACK OF CHILD CARE OPTIONS, LIMITED JOB PROSPECTS, POOR HOUSING, MASS INCARCERATION AND MORE. THEIR STANCE IN FAVOR OF PRENATAL JUSTICE IS IGNORED (OR EVEN DERIDED) BY MOST PROGRESSIVES, WHILE THEIR CALL FOR ECONOMIC JUSTICE IS IGNORED (OR EVEN DERIDED) BY MOST CONSERVATIVES. THE PRO-LIFE MOVEMENTS — WHICH ARE IDEOLOGICALLY AND POLITICALLY DIVERSE — MUST BE THE POLITICAL FORCE THAT BREAKS UP THIS TOXIC BINARY. WE MUST PUT OURSELVES AT THE SERVICE OF WOMEN WHO ARE, DIABOLICALLY, COERCED INTO HAVING ABORTIONS THAT THEY THINK ARE MORALLY WRONG.

Some pro-choicers don't care about the woman once her fetus is killed. If the Abortion Industry were harm reduction, they'd ask questions. They'd ask women, "did your situation lead you to use us? Can we help you recover?" But the Industry is a dealer; they need women to keep coming back. How else would they profit? How else would they rake in donations? How else would they hustle fetal bodies? They can't admit the harm of abortion. They need women to need abortions. Situations remain and the cycle continues. Women are used and discarded. Under the guise of "privacy", their psychic/bodily trauma from abortion is often not discovered for decades. Women deserve better.

Procuring and exchanging aborted fetal body parts occurs daily in the US.

The records from both abortion-providing facilities and research institutes involved indicate that most babies used for experimentation are between 18-24 weeks gestation, far past viability. Since the "specimens cannot be contaminated", all babies used in experimentation are healthy.

uncovered a high likelihood that @ucsf is allowing born alive infants to die, or outright killing them after birth, as their body parts are highly valued for scientific research projects, many of them government funded.

When I first heard of the horrors of fetal organ harvesting I swore it had to be a conspiracy theory. But the more I have worked on this issue, the more real it became. So real that in the last week I visited a university and peered inside their freezer where the broken bodies of these children were being kept.

UCSF regularly uses abortion techniques that have a 50% chance of live birth, and through the public records they provided us, they have no protocols for live birth scenarios. They have also reported to the press that they have never had a live birth at any of their facilities during an abortion.

If all of the information UCSF has provided to the public is true, it would be a STATISTICAL ANOMALY that they have never had a live birth.

The Adoption Industry uses economic and social coercion to profit off of women's bodies and their progeny, just like the Abortion Industry.

Both industries separate families and commodify bodies.

Why is it simpler to cover the cost of an abortion than a month of rent? Why do we crowdfund adoptions, but not a year of parents' wages?

Why are we applying permanent solutions to temporary financial situations?

An abortion costs up to $1.5 K.
An adoption costs up to $40 K.

If you weren't aware of the fetal body trade, it's a higher payoff than other medical research markets. Image search "fetal scalp mice" (tw)

WHEN A WOMAN TRIES TO ACHIEVE THE VICTORIES OF MEN BY ACTING LIKE THEM, PURSUING POWER BY IGNORING HER UNIQUE FEMININE QUALITIES, SHE IS STILL PERPETUATING THE UNDERLYING ASSUMPTION THAT THE MASCULINE IS MORE POWERFUL, AND SHE IS SUBCONSCIOUSLY COMPLICIT IN SOCIETY'S UNDERVALUING OF WOMEN.

@THEMAMATTORNEY

Even the choices made within our own bodies have ripple effects. When we think of abortion as a self-contained choice we overlook the viral qualities of the societal ills it perpetuates (ableism, racism, sexism, etc.)

Customarily women have held a collectivist attitude; that is, women take more responsibility for the wellbeing of the family and community than men. Rather than encouraging women to be more individualistic- thus not only shirking the responsibility of men onto women, but also requiring women to think and value more like men-we should demand that men be more collectivist, hence more like women. Let's stop asking women to change as if they are the problem.

"Men refuse to assume their fair share of responsibility for birth control... The drug industry has no real motivation to develop a reversible method of male birth control because forcing this burden on women is so damn profitable. Americans spent $5 billion on birth control in 2011. There are exceptions, bright shining exceptions, but men don't want the responsibility of birth control. Why would they? They see what the responsibility continues to cost women publicly and privately."

-Roxane Gay

THERE ARE MEN WILLING TO RISK GETTING A WOMAN PREGNANT — WHICH MEANS LITERALLY RISKING HER LIFE, HER HEALTH, HER SOCIAL STATUS, HER RELATIONSHIPS, AND HER CAREER, SO THAT THEY CAN EXPERIENCE A FEW MINUTES OF SLIGHTLY MORE PLEASURE. PREGNANCIES CAN ONLY HAPPEN WHEN MEN HAVE AN ORGASM. UNWANTED PREGNANCIES CAN ONLY HAPPEN WHEN MEN ORGASM IRRESPONSIBLY. WOMEN ENJOYING SEX DOES NOT EQUAL UNWANTED PREGNANCY AND ABORTION. MEN ENJOYING SEX AND HAVING IRRESPONSIBLE EJACULATIONS IS WHAT CAUSES UNWANTED PREGNANCIES AND ABORTION. LET'S TALK MORE ABOUT RESPONSIBILITY. MEN OFTEN DON'T KNOW, AND DON'T ASK, AND DON'T THINK TO ASK, IF THEY'VE CAUSED A PREGNANCY. THEY MAY NEVER THINK OF IT, OR ASSOCIATE SEX WITH MAKING BABIES AT ALL. WHY? BECAUSE THERE ARE 0 CONSEQUENCES FOR MEN WHO CAUSE UNWANTED PREGNANCIES. IF THE WOMAN DECIDES TO HAVE AN ABORTION, THE MAN MAY NEVER KNOW HE CAUSED AN UNWANTED PREGNANCY WITH HIS IRRESPONSIBLE EJACULATION. IF THE WOMAN DOES TELL HIM THAT HE CAUSED AN UNWANTED PREGNANCY AND THAT SHE'S HAVING THE BABY, THE CLOSEST THING TO A CONSEQUENCE FOR HIM, IS THAT HE MAY NEED TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT. SO, MANY MEN KEEP GOING AS IS, CAUSING UNWANTED PREGNANCIES WITH IRRESPONSIBLE EJACULATIONS AND NEVER GIVING IT THOUGHT. WHEN THE TOPIC OF ABORTION COMES UP, MEN MIGHT THINK: ABORTION IS HORRIBLE; WOMEN SHOULD NOT HAVE ABORTIONS. AND NEVER ONCE CONSIDER THE MAN WHO CAUSED THE UNWANTED PREGNANCY.

In so many aspects of life, men manipulate women for male pleasure. Abortion is often no different. When a man tries to persuade a woman he impregnated to procure an abortion, he puts his needs ahead of hers. He wants sex from her without any consequences, even if that means that she has to bear those consequences. Does he not recognize that this abortion is ultimately about reducing her to a sex object? But why would he? Men treating women like sex objects is hardly out of the ordinary. Abortion has frequently been presented as a form of women's liberation. But how often is it just another form of male control over women? If misogyny and sexual violence against women are common, then how can situations like this not also be common?

Some ways males with female partners* can help reduce need for abortions:

*(i.e. any virile folk who has intercourse with fertile folk)

Get educated on the female reproductive system
Understand each phase of the menstrual cycle
Learn to recognize fertile window indications
Know how to find local pregnancy resources
Make your own pregnancy-preparedness plan
Following consent for sex with a new partner, discuss pregnancy contingencies
Ask partners about their menstrual cycles
Offer to help track their fertile windows
Confirm timing with them before each encounter
Use protection, as a rule
Don't pressure into less-safe sex
Don't pressure into sex
Understand why abortions terminate pregnancy
Get educated on how abortions are performed
Learn which contraceptives are abortifacients
Check if your partner is informed about abortion
Be open with your feelings about abortion
Be honest about your feelings on pregnancy
Get woke to the patriarchy
Don't pressure partners into abortion
Affirm and support parenting
Offer to parent as an option
Advocate for maternal legal protections
Advocate for social parenting resources
Supply maternal accommodations
Participate in the March for Moms
Donate to male birth control research
Acknowledge your liability for causing life

Bonus: if your partner likes period sex, do it

I DON'T KNOW WHO NEEDS TO HEAR THIS, BUT...
VIAGARA IS NOT EQUIVALENT TO BIRTH CONTROL.
IMPOTENCE IS A DYSFUNCTION OF THE BODY; FERTILITY IS THE BODY FUNCTIONING CORRECTLY AND AS ANTICIPATED.
FERTILITY IS NOT A DEFECT.

HEALTHCARE RESTORES AND AUGMENTS FUNCTION; ELECTIVE ABORTION DISRUPTS NORMAL, HEALTHY FEMALE BODY FUNCTION.
PREGNANCY IS NOT A DISEASE.
QUIT PATHOLOGIZING THE NATURAL BODILY PROCESSES OF WOMEN.

THE WOMBLESS MALE BODY IS NOT STANDARD.

Of course unplanned pregnancy presents challenges. But it doesn't have to lead to economic failure.

Abortion is society's easy way out — its way to avoid grappling with the fundamental injustices coercing desperate women into abortion clinics.

As long as we continue to allow our fertility and the lives of our unborn children to be devalued, the world will continue to devalue US rather than make a world that works for women too.

THE PREBORN LIFE IS USUALLY SET AGAINST THE WOMAN'S NEED TO HAVE AN ABORTION IN ORDER TO FREELY DIRECT HER OWN LIFE. IT IS A PARTICULAR CRUELTY TO PRESENT ABORTION AS SOMETHING WOMEN WANT, SOMETHING THEY DEMAND, THEY FIND LIBERATING. BECAUSE NOBODY WANTS THIS. THE PROCEDURE ITSELF IS PAINFUL, HUMILIATING, EXPENSIVE —NO WOMAN "WANTS" TO GO THROUGH IT. BUT ONCE IT'S AVAILABLE, IT APPEARS TO BE THE LOGICAL, REASONABLE CHOICE.

YES, ABORTION SOLVES ALL THE PROBLEMS; BUT IT SOLVES THEM INSIDE THE WOMAN'S BODY. AND SHE IS EXPECTED TO KEEP THAT PAIN INSIDE FOR A LIFETIME, AND BE GRATEFUL FOR THE GIFT OF ABORTION.

NOBODY WANTS TO HAVE AN ABORTION. AND IF NOBODY WANTS TO HAVE AN ABORTION, WHY ARE WOMEN DOING IT, 2300 TIMES A DAY? IF WOMEN DO SOMETHING 2300 TIMES DAILY THAT THEY DON'T WANT TO DO, THIS IS NOT LIBERATION WE'VE WON. WE ARE COLLUDING IN A STRANGE NEW FORM OF OPPRESSION.

“It was really my own struggles after my abortion, feeling like something wasn’t right in the decisions I made after that. I thought I was in control, but I wasn’t in control. I knew I needed help. I needed some type of healing... I felt lied to. I wanted to warn women that if you make this choice, it will not go away. This choice will not keep you from your behavior. And this is going to potentially have you making other decisions that you will not connect until maybe even 10, 15 years down the road.”

— Cherilyn Holloway
BLM activist

“I was able to bury everything I felt during my abortion and what led up to it. I was able to convince myself to protect my own sanity that abortions were fantastic and I didn’t regret mine. Truly, human psychology is fascinating and it’s amazing what we can do for self-preservation of mind and body... We have no idea which women are out there, claiming their abortions were wonderful, yet in more pain than any of us might understand.”

Abortion has always been used by the powerful to exploit the vulnerable.

The abortion industry grooms women with PR campaigns because they regard fertile bodies as commodity objects for profit. They proselytize that abortion is liberating, when in reality it abets the dehumanization of women and their progeny.

Industry propaganda inculcates the cognitive dissonance that conditions women to espouse abortion. When indoctrinated women sense this dissonance, it arouses the intuition that they've been manipulated.

This is perceived as a threat not only to their worldview, but also as a threat to their existence by their nervous system. This distress may manifest in post-traumatic behaviors such as militancy, sublimation, and disengagement.

This is a tragedy of oppression.

"Our goal was to have a woman on [and off] the table, abortion complete, in five minutes. Time is money in the abortion industry, and we had a certain quota, or number of abortions, that we had to sell each month. We, the abortion clinic staff, gave [the patients] no comfort, and we certainly never gave them a shoulder to cry on. It was another woman that fulfilled our monthly abortion quota. That was just the process of how we dehumanize the women that came through our facility. But the primary victim of abortion was being dehumanized in a far more barbaric fashion...

If you are a woman who has had an abortion in this crowd, I just want to say that I'm sorry. I'm sorry that you were lied to, I am sorry that people like me took advantage of you, that we coerced you, that we lied, that we didn't give you the information, that we abused you– because you know what? Abortion is abuse."

What is Perinatal Hospice?

Did you know for families of preborn children diagnosed with conditions "incompatible with life", Perinatal Hospice is an option? This is death-positivity! It reduces unnecessary suffering and honors the bond between the parents and children.

Perinatal hospice exists because the unfortunate reality is babies do die, even with the best available medicine. Used when a poor prenatal diagnosis has been given, it allows families an opportunity to embrace their child's life, however limited that life will be.

Built upon traditional hospice practices, perinatal hospice guides parents through both medical and anticipatory and post-partum grief processes, by

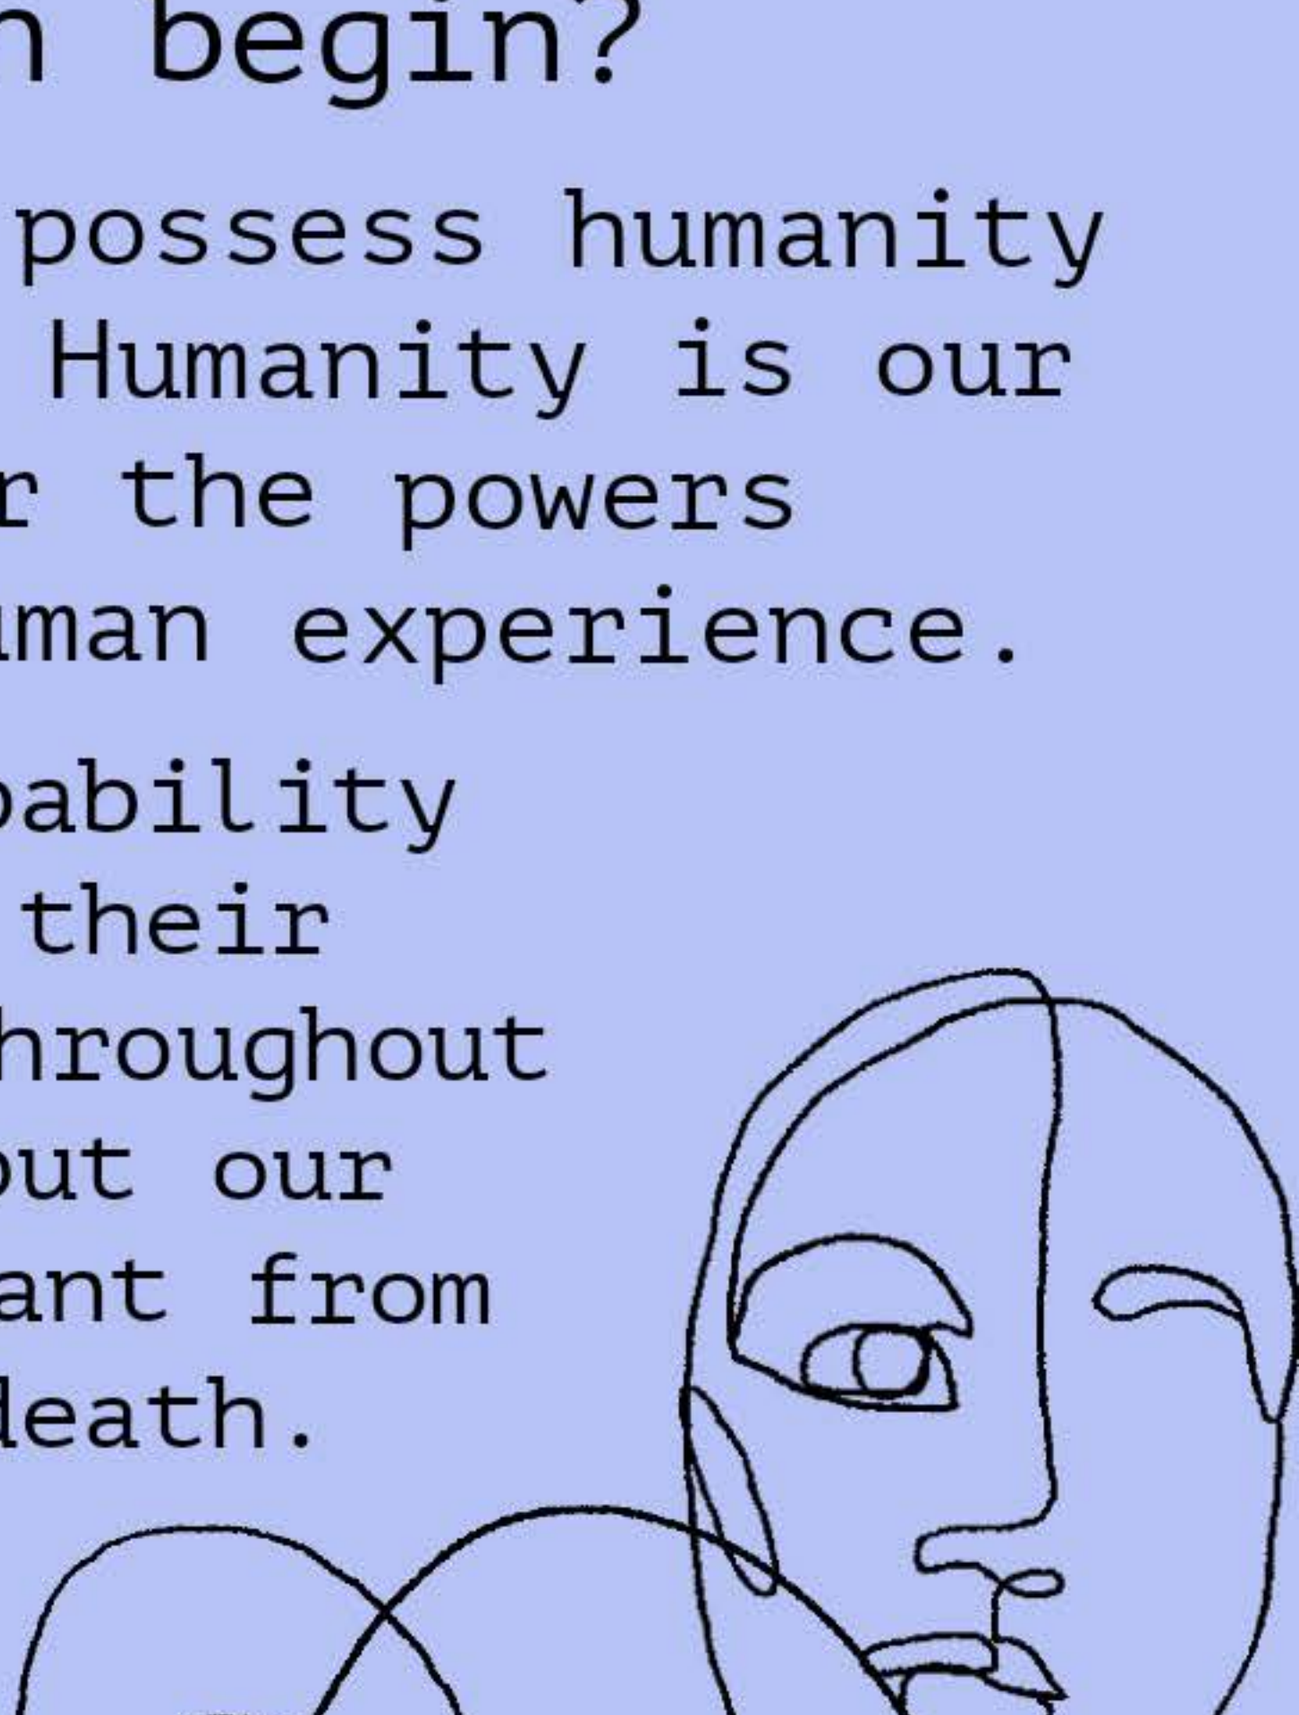
Do you know when a human becomes a person?

"Human" describes biological members of humankind species. "Person" describes philosophical members of humanity. For example, you are a human because of your DNA; Mr. Spock is a person because we see humanity in him.

We know the human lifecycle begins at conception. But when did your life as a person begin?

We know we must possess humanity to be a person. Humanity is our capacity for the powers essential to human experience. Our levels of capability are transient- their presence changes throughout our lifecycle- but our capacity is constant from conception to death.

Ergo, humanity is intrinsic to our existence as humans and personhood is inherent in our human nature.

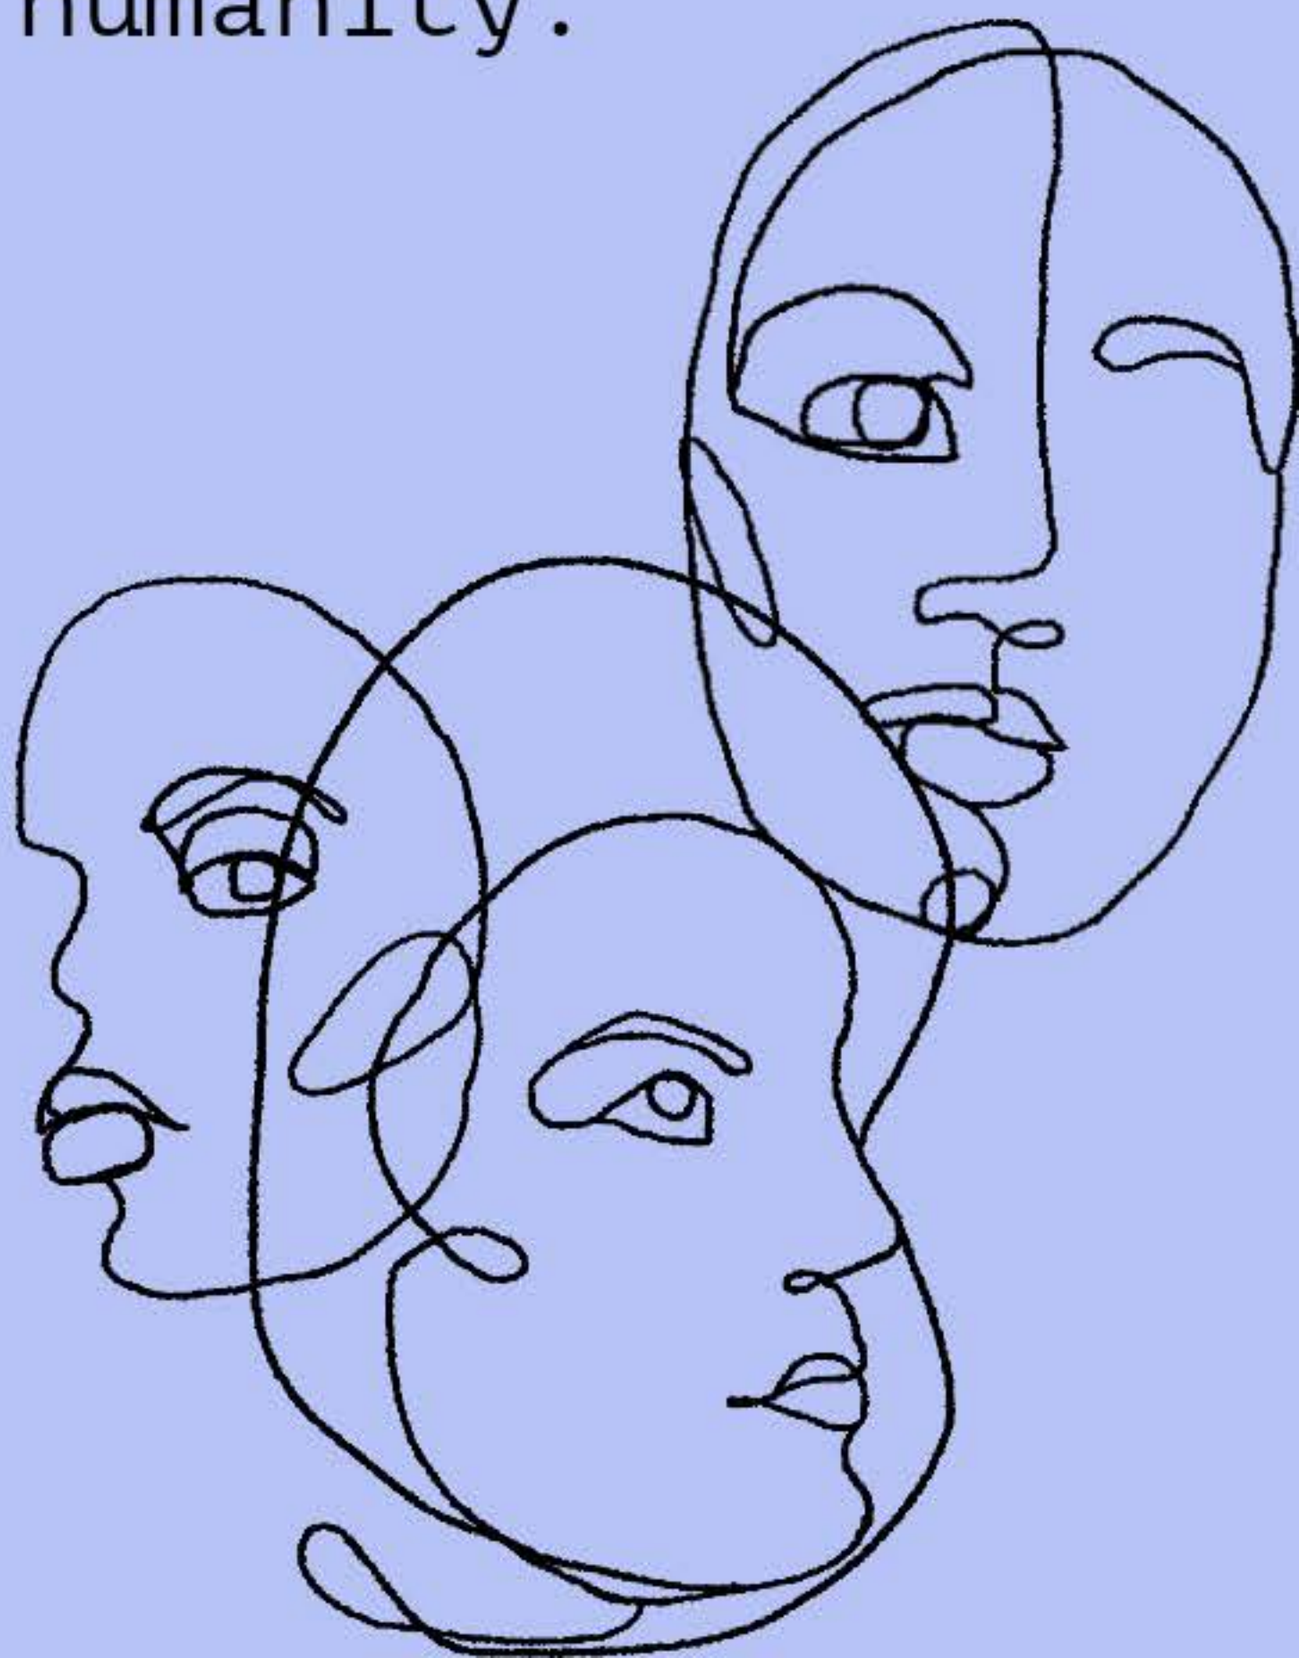


A human being becomes a person as a requisite of being human. Your person life began at the same time as your human life!

So if you accept the capacity for essential human powers as the objective criteria for humanity, then it follows that the concept of a human “person” is a social construct relative to perception, in the same manner as gender.

I hope you agree that social constructs are not sound justifications for denying natural human rights.
To do so requires empirical or rational evidence that a human being lacks absolute faculties sufficient of humanity.

To deny humanity based on subjective or inconsistent criteria is dehumanization.



Personhood is a violent & exploitative construct.

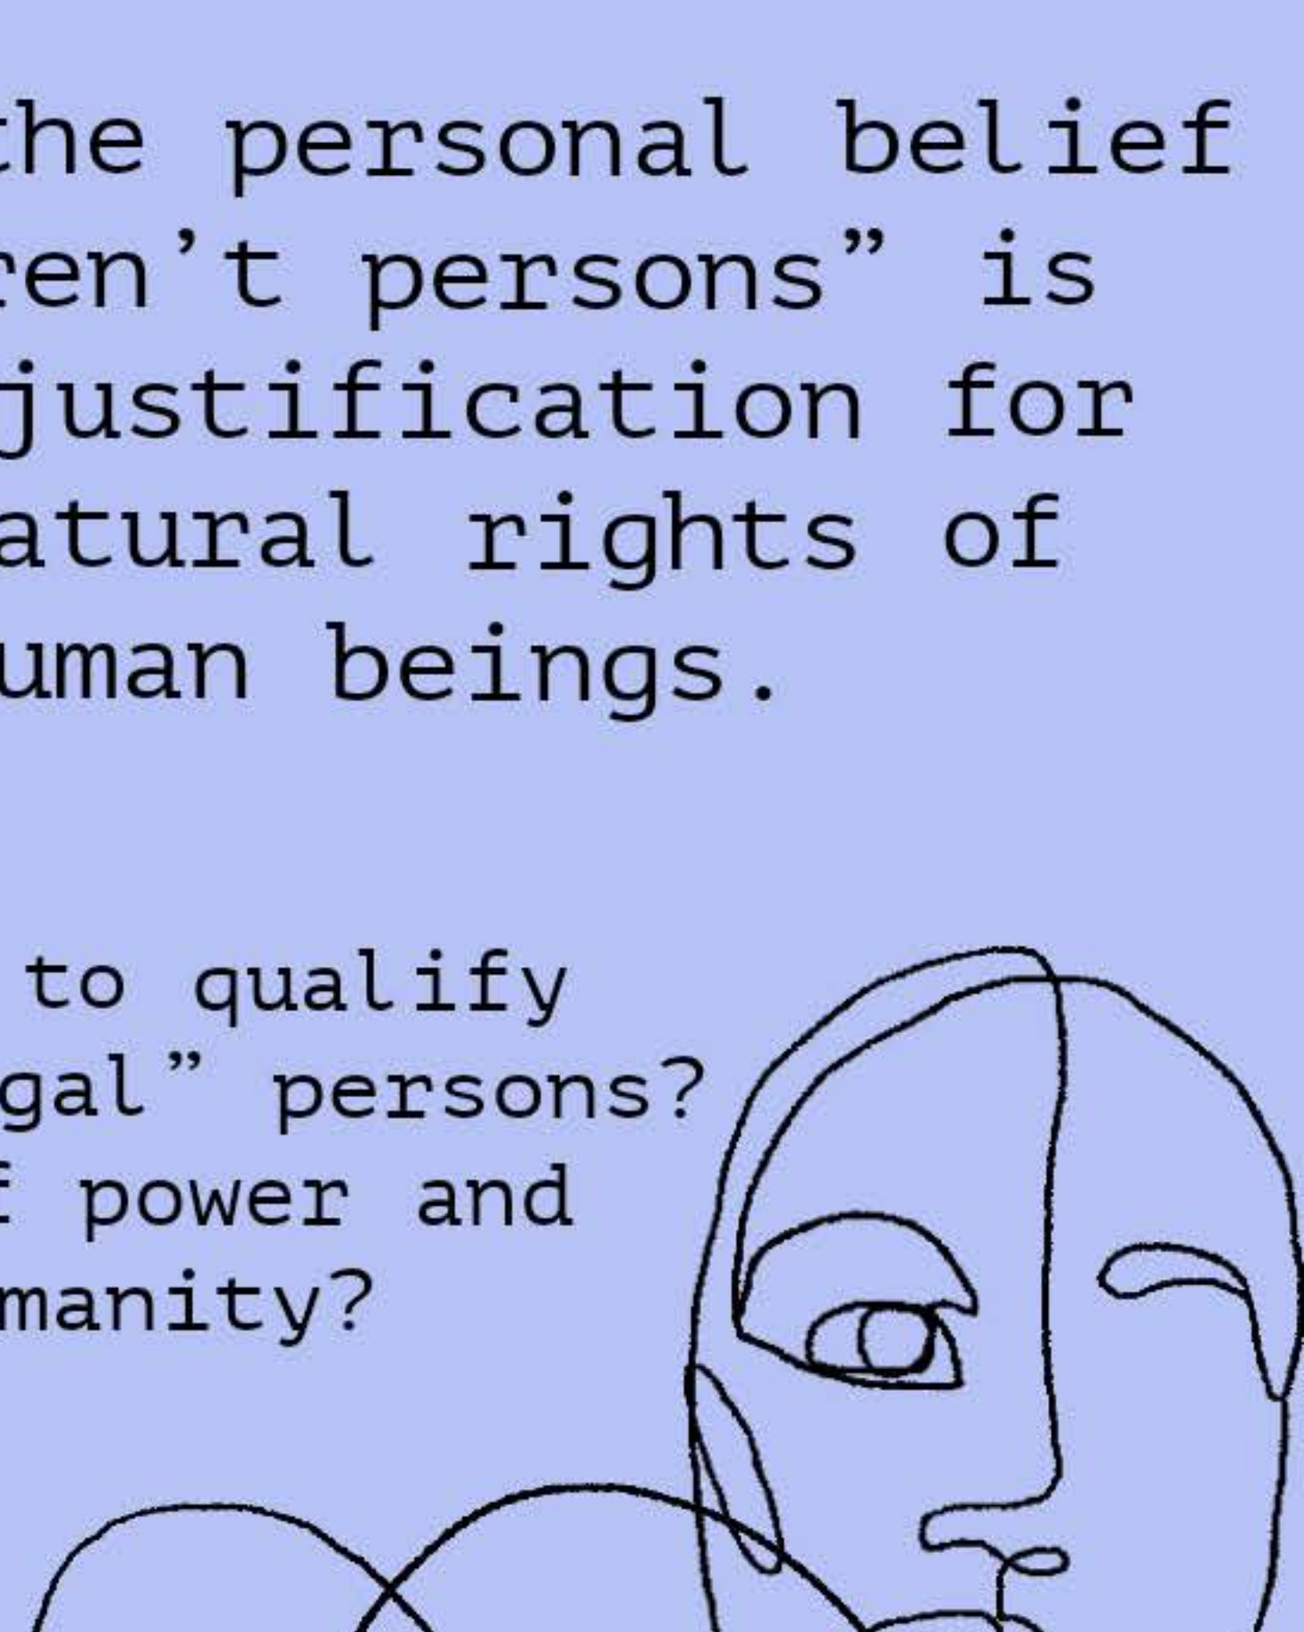
"They're not a person" is the personal belief slaveowners and colonizers used to justify the enslavement and genocide of Black and Indigenous humans.

Our government should not privilege any belief system.

Because of this, the personal belief "these humans aren't persons" is not valid legal justification for the denial of natural rights of embryonic human beings.

Is anyone entitled to qualify human beings as "illegal" persons? Or is that abuse of power and violation of humanity?

To render another human being powerless is to lose our own humanity.



Why not presume preborn are persons so long as reasonable doubt that preborn are not persons is present?

Why not the other way around? Why would we presume guilt and demand proof of innocence?

To prevent unjustified harm, we presume innocence so long as reasonable doubt of guilt is present.

Why should we presume preborn are not persons and demand proof that preborn are persons?

Are we trying to prevent unjustified harm, or are we trying to justify preventable harm?

THE DEHUMANIZATION SPECTRUM

[STAGE:]	THE UNBORN ARE:
INFERIOR (DISCRIMINATED)	"NOT QUITE HUMAN PERSONS"
NON-PERSON (DEPERSONALIZED)	"ONLY POTENTIAL PERSONS"
NON-HUMAN (DEHUMANIZED)	"PROBABLY NOT HUMAN LIVES"
PLAGUE (VILLIFIED)	"MOSTLY PARASITES"
PROPERTY (OBJECTIFIED)	"MERELY CLUMPS OF TISSUE"
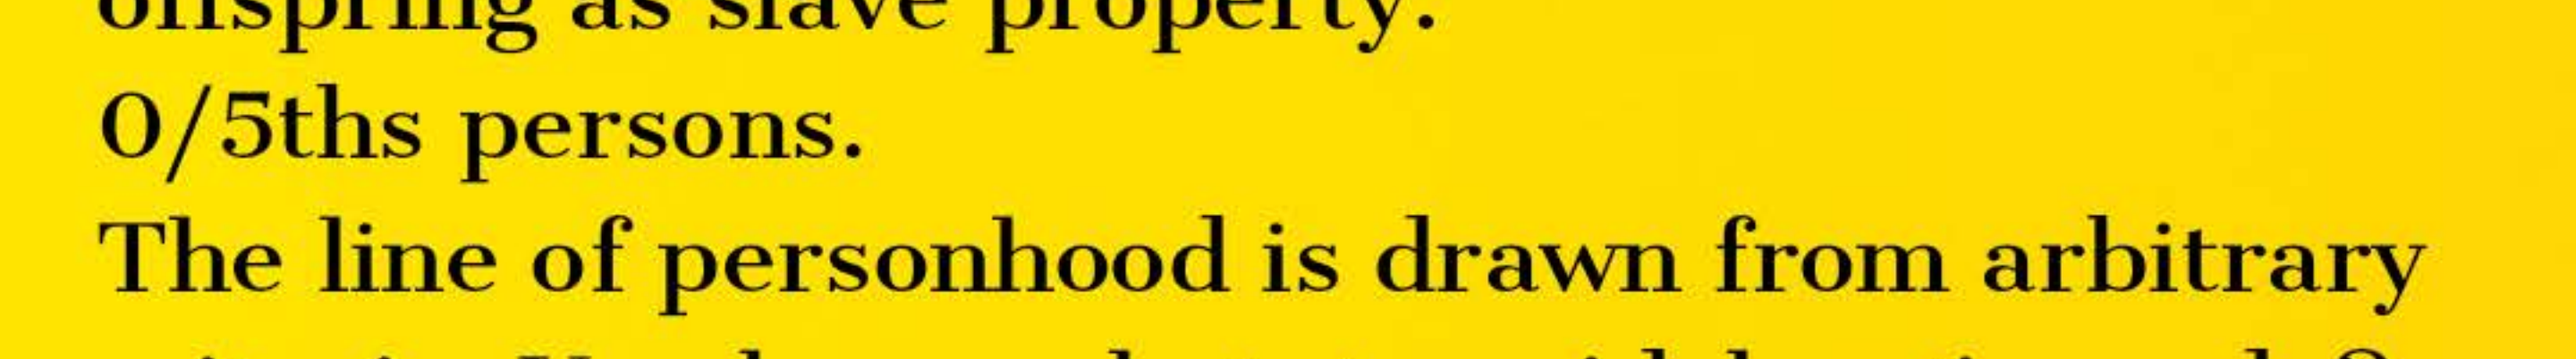
NON-EXISTENT (DENIED)	"JUST PREGNANCIES"

Remember what happened when the US govt defined personhood in 1787?
They said slaves count as 3/5ths persons.
I accept govt expanding the definition of personhood to include animals and corporations.
I can't accept govt restricting the definition to exclude classes of human beings from their natural human right to not be deliberately, violently killed. That is weaponization of power.
The Pacific Justice Institute suggests that when aborting their fetus, parents treat their offspring as slave property.
0/5ths persons.
The line of personhood is drawn from arbitrary criteria. You know what genocidal regimes do? Redraw that line to fit their own agendas.
That's stage 3 of the 10 stages of genocide.



I refuse to give govt the power to draw that line.
I do not trust anyone to draw it.
Erase it or more people will be erased by it.

"USING LEGALITY AS YOUR WAY TO DEFINE PERSONHOOD, RATHER THAN HUMANITY, WILL ALWAYS EXCLUDE CERTAIN HUMANS. WHICH IS EXACTLY WHAT HAS BEEN DONE THROUGHOUT HISTORY TO DISCRIMINATE, TORTURE AND KILL."

ALL HUMANS ARE PERSONS. THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS A HUMAN NON PERSON.

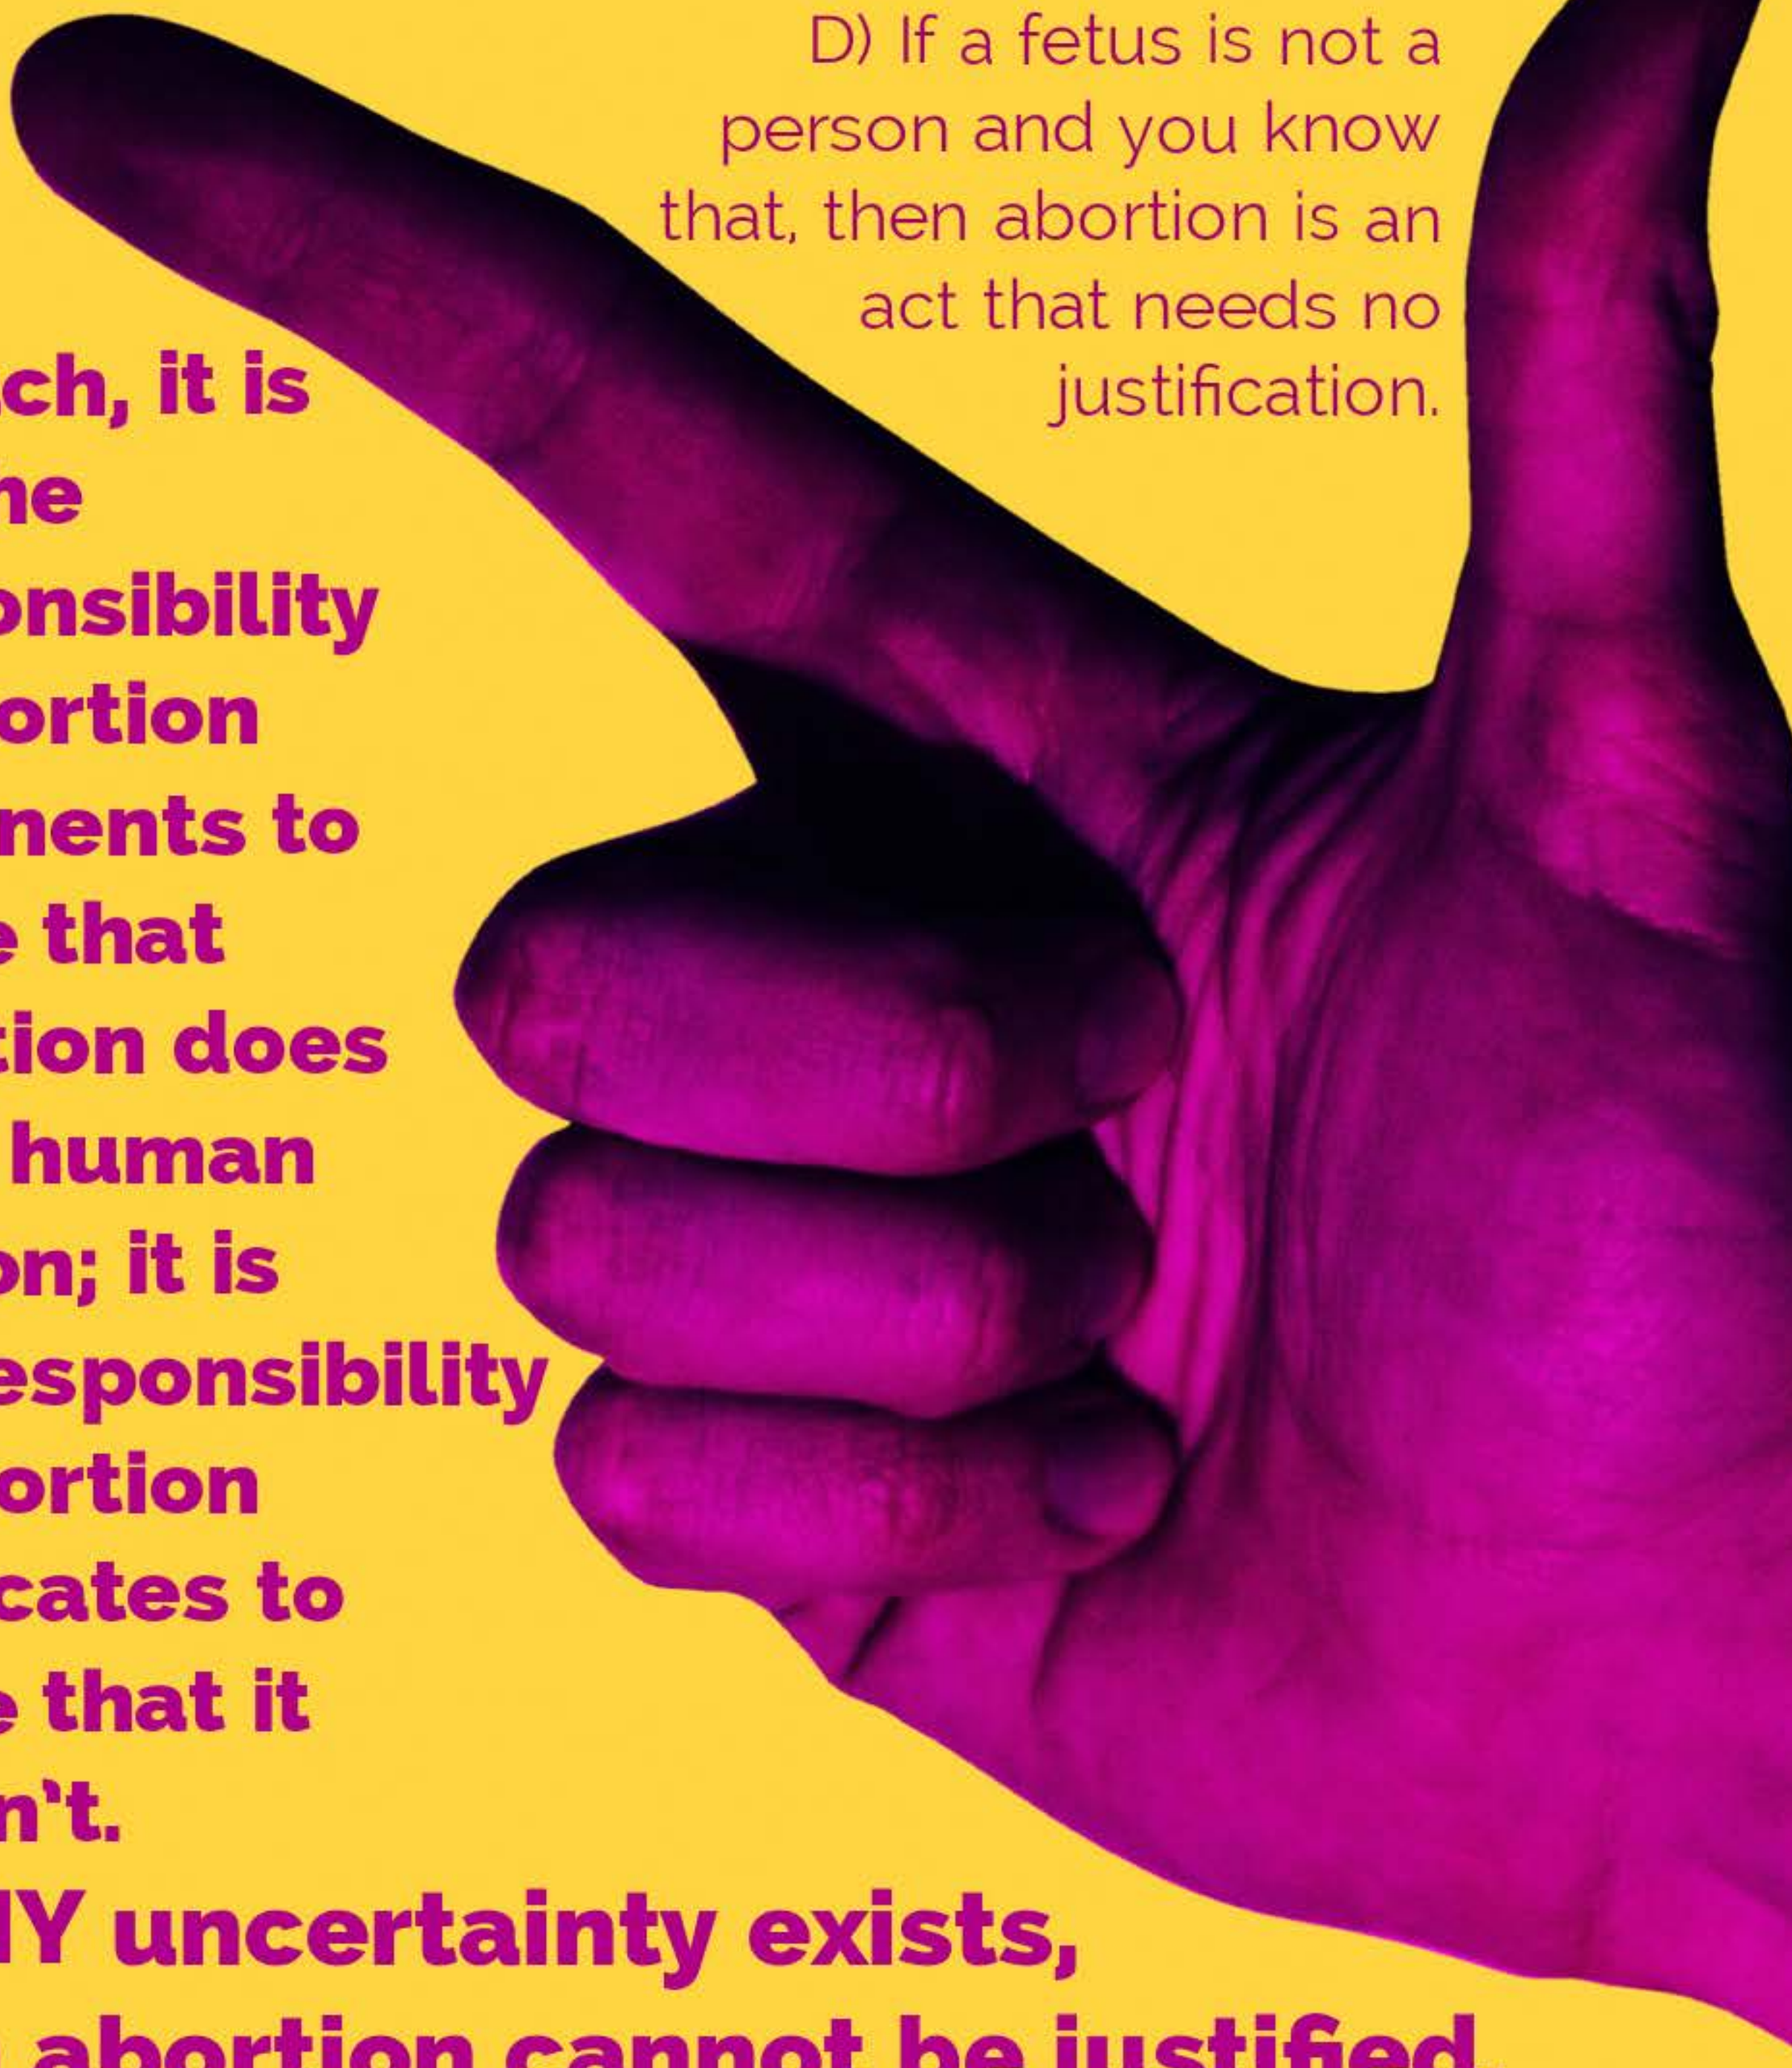
If we can never really know when a human becomes a person, then four possibilities exist:

A) If a fetus is a person and you know that, then abortion is an act of homicide. You intentionally killed a human person.

B) If a fetus is a person but you don't know that, then abortion is an act of manslaughter. You unintentionally killed a human person.

C) If the fetus is not a person but you don't know that, then abortion is an act of criminal negligence. You didn't kill a human person, but you intentionally risked doing so.

D) If a fetus is not a person and you know that, then abortion is an act that needs no justification.



As such, it is not the responsibility of abortion opponents to prove that abortion does kill a human person; it is the responsibility of abortion advocates to prove that it doesn't.

If ANY uncertainty exists, then abortion cannot be justified.

If you are convinced that a fetus is not a person, what property makes a human a person, and why? Why is a human without that property NOT a person?

How does that property bestow personhood upon attainment?

If you are unsure or sure that a fetus is a person,

What might justify killing a person?

"WHEN I HEAR PEOPLE, SPECIFICALLY WHITE WOMEN, OFFERING THEIR ALLYSHIP IN A WAY THAT THEY WERE WILLING TO PAY FOR OR TRANSPORT LOW-INCOME BLACK WOMEN TO THEIR ABORTION- I SEE THAT AS VERY CLASSIST. I SEE THAT AS, YOU ARE NOT SOLVING THEIR PROBLEM; YOU ARE GIVING THEM A BAND-AID SOLUTION TO A MUCH BIGGER ISSUE. THIS RIGHT THAT YOU'RE SAYING SHE HAS, SHE IS EXERCISING IT BECAUSE SHE'S POOR, OR BECAUSE SHE FEELS LIKE SHE CAN'T AFFORD IT- THAT IS AN ISSUE WITH THE RIGHT TO EQUITY WITHIN ITSELF THAT YOU'RE NOT WILLING TO SOLVE. INSTEAD, YOU ARE COMMITTED TO TO CREATING A STRUCTURE THAT FURTHER OPPRESSES THEM BY SAYING, 'YOU'RE POOR, SO THIS IS YOUR OPTION' ... INSTEAD OF CREATING A SYSTEM THAT BRINGS THEM OUT OF THAT SITUATION. TO ME, THAT'S NOT ALLYSHIP. MY RESPONSIBILITY TO MY COMMUNITY IS TO MAKE SURE THEY THRIVE IN THE MOST LIFE-AFFIRMING WAY; THAT THEY THRIVE IN A WAY THAT SHOWS LOVE AND COMPASSION BEYOND THE MOMENT OF CRISIS, BEYOND THE MOMENT OF DESPAIR, BEYOND THE MOMENT OF CHOICE. IS ABORTION THE ANSWER TO REPRODUCTIVE FREEDOM IN THE BLACK COMMUNITY? NO. WE NEED TO STRENGTHEN THE BLACK COMMUNITY AS A WHOLE. AT NO POINT SHOULD OUR FREEDOM OR OUR LIBERATION COME AT THE COST OF THE BLOOD OF OUR CHILDREN AND THE BLOOD OF OUR FUTURE GENERATIONS. THAT RIGHT THERE SHOULD BE THE TRIGGERING THING THAT TELLS US, THIS ISN'T FOR US. ABORTION IS SOMETHING THAT'S HAPPENING, IN [THE BLACK] COMMUNITY, TO US AND NOT FOR US."

"WE DO BELIEVE THAT, MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE, ABORTION IS RACISM. 78% OF YOUR FREE ABORTION CLINICS WERE PLACED IN BLACK AND URBAN AREAS FOR THE PURPOSE OF SOMETHING, FREE OF CHARGE, FROM A RACIST SOCIETY, AS TO PUT IT IN WORDS OF ONE PRO-ABORTIONIST, 'WE DON'T NEED SO MANY NEGROES ANYMORE, THERE'S NO MORE COTTON TO PICK.' SO WITH THESE FEELINGS ABOUT BLACK PEOPLE, THIS WAS ONE WAY OF DOING IT AS A 'SOCIAL BENEFIT', IF YOU WILL. AND LET IT BE STATED, BLACK WOMEN NEVER DEMONSTRATED, DEMANDED, OR EVEN REQUESTED, THE RIGHT TO AN ABORTION. WE'VE BEEN ASKING FOR THE RIGHT TO DECENT HOUSING, THE RIGHT TO EDUCATION– IN FACT, THE RIGHT TO HEALTH CARE, AND ALL WE'VE BEEN GIVEN, FREE OF CHARGE, IS THE RIGHT TO KILL OUR UNBORN CHILD. WE ARE STILL STRUGGLING FOR EQUAL OPPORTUNITY. IT IS DEMEANING TO THE BLACK WOMAN, BECAUSE WHEN YOU WANTED US, IN OTHER WORDS WHEN WE WERE ON THE PLANTATION, YOU SNATCHED THE NEWBORN BABY FROM MY ARMS AND SOLD IT INTO SLAVERY. TODAY, YOU CUT IT OUT OF THE WOMB AND THROW IT IN THE GARBAGE, OR USE IT FOR HUMAN EXPERIMENTATION. THE DEATH OF BLACK AMERICANS BY ALCOHOL, DRUGS, CRIME, AND SUICIDE IS NOT SUFFICIENT FOR PRUNING THE BLACK AMERICAN POPULATION; NOW THEY ARE ATTACKED IN THE WOMB. YES, SOME BLACK LEGISLATORS BELIEVE THAT IF WHITE WOMEN HAVE IT, BLACK WOMEN WANT IT; THEY DON'T KNOW BLACK WOMEN."

– DR. BERNADETTE GRIER

Don't speak for us women of color when I can very damn well speak for myself. I myself faced an unplanned pregnancy.
I am tired of being told my daughter needed to die in order for me to achieve my goals, get an education, and uplift myself out of poverty. Medicaid, WIC (a program started by my people), and SNAP gave me hope. Love and support of family and friends got me through. Resources and fundamental healthcare is what women of color need in order to have healthy pregnancies and joyful births, not abortions. I am 1 of 2 million children protected under the Hyde Amendment. My mother and I were the perfect targets for the abortion industry due to her fragile circumstances as a single woman of color without an education. What you are advocating for is my death and the death of other children in the womb who were just like me as if we are unwanted vermin.
What I ask is for you to stop discriminating women who face unplanned pregnancies and support life affirming resources and programs for both women and children.

Stop looking at low income women of color as a bunch of breeding rats who NEED abortions. It's racist as fuck.

"For sooo many minority women, our challenge has been to simply be able to bear, and keep, our babies. The family unit has been, and will always be, our first and primary protective layer of self and cultural preservation. At an existential level, what we are essentially saying when we endorse and promote abortion is that the progeny and offspring of a person and or group, in essence a part of themselves, is not deserving to live. Abortion is an existential way of saying your kind should not continue on. I can never look someone in the eye and tell them they are not worth being shared into the future through their children. It's not a part of my humanity to dehumanize any person or their future progeny, which is in essence a part of the present them... Our first environment is the womb, then the home, then our world. I don't know how to explain to you that you should care about the systematic eradication of people.

Abortion is ageist, ableist, classist, racist, sexist, and puritanical because it dehumanizes and eliminates the dependent, the disabled, the poor, the disempowered, the unwanted, and the nonconforming.

Abortion is a tool of the Patriarchy, the Capitalist, the Imperialist and the Colonizer because it perpetuates the subordination, commodification, subjugation, and sublimation of the systemically oppressed and marginalized by normatizing the wombless and pathologizing the fertile, alienating the unproductive, exploiting the vulnerable, and extracting the indigenous.

MORAL PERMISSIBILITY VS. MORAL CULPABILITY

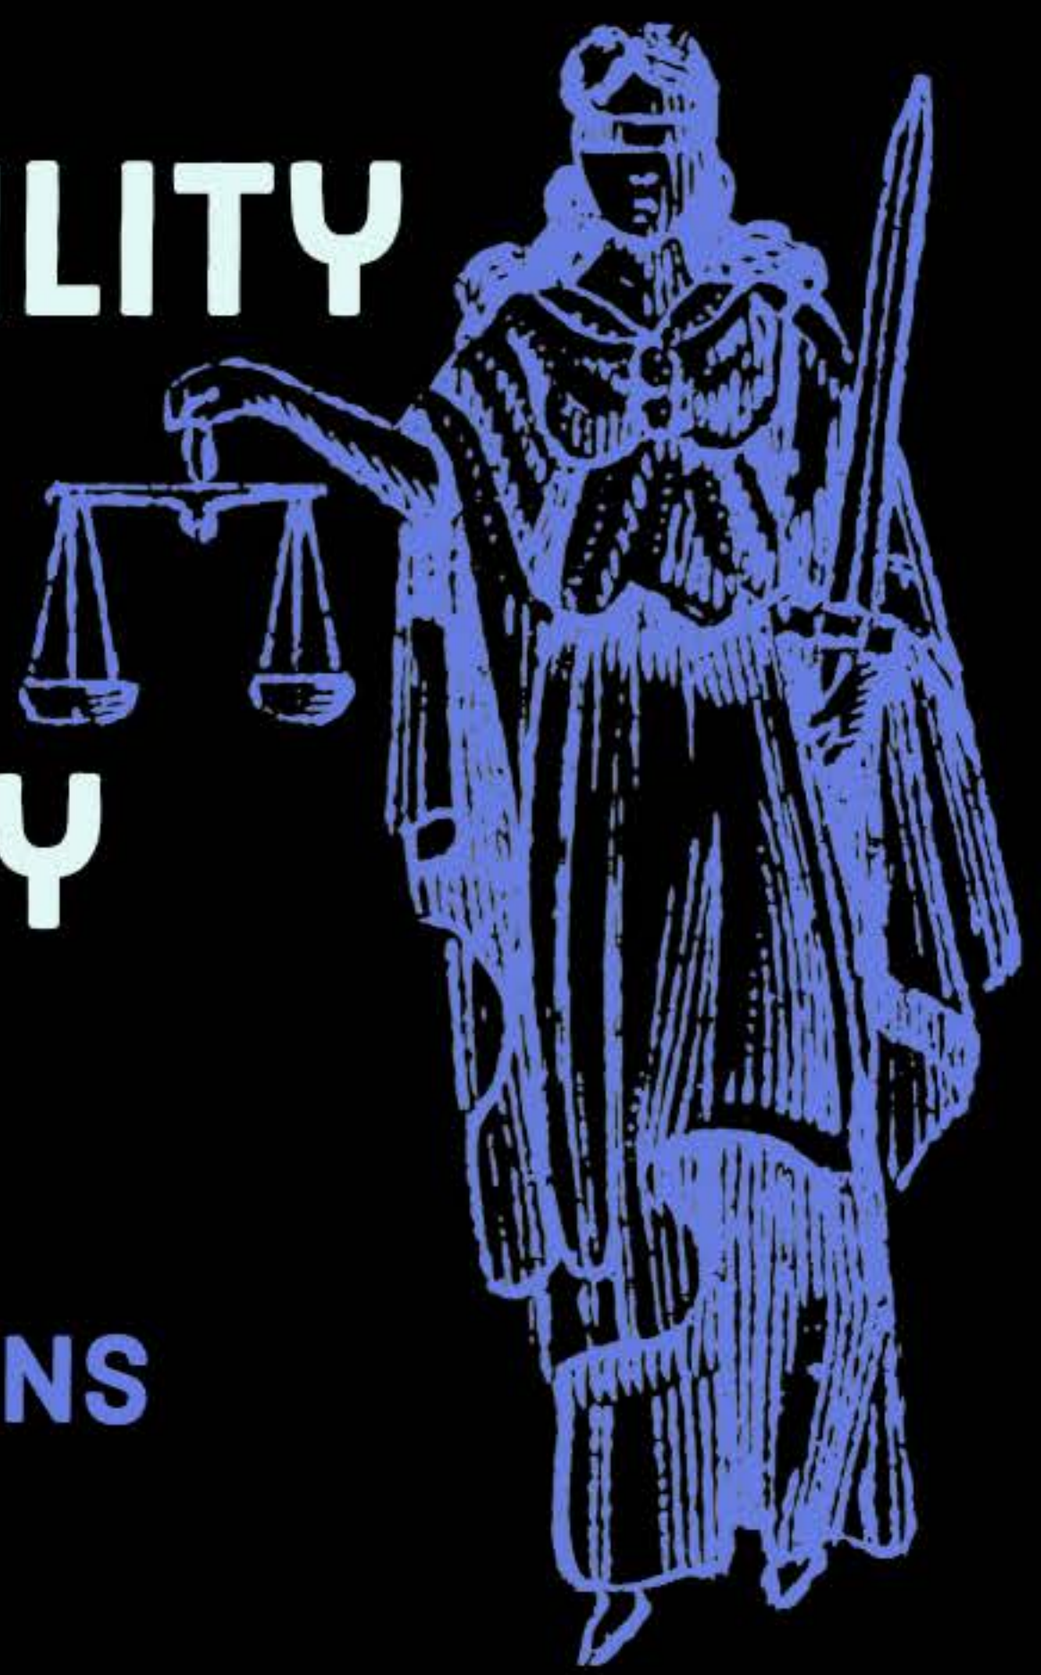
"IS IT OKAY FOR THEM TO DO THAT?" IS A QUESTION OF MORAL PERMISSIBILITY.

"ARE THEY TO BLAME FOR DOING THAT?" IS A QUESTION OF MORAL CULPABILITY.

THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN MORAL PERMISSIBILITY AND CULPABILITY IS IMPORTANT BECAUSE THEY REFER TO SEPARATE FEATURES OF AN ETHICAL DILEMMA, AND THEY MAY NOT ALWAYS ALIGN.

THIS IS SIMILAR TO THE SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SEX AND GENDER. THE MORAL PERMISSIBILITY OF A GENERAL ACT, LIKE THE BIOLOGICAL SEX OF A HUMAN BODY, MAY BE DISCERNED "PRIMA FACIE", I.E. BASED ON FIRST IMPRESSION.
IN CONTRAST, THE MORAL CULPABILITY OF AN INDIVIDUAL TO AN ACT, LIKE THE GENDER OF AN INDIVIDUAL HUMAN, MUST BE DISCERNED CONTEXTUALLY, I.E. BASED ON CIRCUMSTANCE.

MORAL PERMISSIBILITY VS. MORAL CULPABILITY



THIS DISTINCTION APPLIES TO THE ETHICAL IMPLICATIONS OF ABORTION.

FOR INSTANCE, AN ABORTION OPPONENT MAY DISCERN THAT ABORTION IS A PRIMA FACIE SERIOUSLY WRONG ACT AND IS THEREFORE NEVER MORALLY PERMISSIBLE. HOWEVER, THE ABORTION OPPONENT MUST CONSIDER THE "MENS REA", I.E. MINDSETS AND INTENTIONS, OF THE INDIVIDUALS THAT PROCURE ABORTIONS WHEN DISCERNING THE DEGREE OF THEIR MORAL CULPABILITY.

AN ABORTION PROPONENT MUST ALSO CONSIDER THIS DISTINCTION.
THEY MAY DISCERN INDIVIDUALS ARE GENERALLY NOT MORALLY CULPABLE FOR THEIR SPECIFIC ACT OF PROCURING AN ABORTION. HOWEVER, IT DOES NOT TRANSLATE THAT THE GENERAL ACT OF ABORTION IS THEREFORE MORALLY PERMISSIBLE.
NOR DOES IT TRANSLATE THAT ABORTIONISTS ARE THEREFORE NOT MORALLY CULPABLE. WHILE INDIVIDUAL RECIPIENTS OF ABORTIONS MAY LACK AGENCY IN THE ACT, THEIR CIRCUMSTANCES DO NOT NECESSARILY INFLUENCE THE AGENCY OF OTHER ACTORS.

People vulnerable to health complications during pregnancy deserve medical advancements to promote their reproduction. People vulnerable to peripartum suicidality deserve mental healthcare. We must not settle for progeny sacrifice as a cop-out solution to legitimate health concerns.

Incest includes scenarios in which two people are unaware they are related and conceive. There is a risk here of the child having severe disability, but to say they aren't deserving to live because of that is incredibly ableist.

The war on women will be won when rape is treated as seriously as murder. Rapists can't be sentenced to the death penalty. Killing a fetus conceived from rape gives more rights to the rapist than to the human being created from his crime.

As both conception by rape and childhood pregnancy are unnatural, perhaps in this situation pregnancy termination could be justified as disruption of an unnatural process from an evil act. This would qualify it as an exception under "health of the mother" clauses.

We cannot harvest organs from a human being's non-living body without their prior consent; if a prenatal body may be dismembered and harvested without their consent, then those human beings have less rights than a corpse.

Let's discuss exceptions.

I SUPPORT RESTORATIVE JUSTICE AFTER ABORTION.

I WANT TO SEE HEALING FOR ALL WHO HAVE SUFFERED AT THE HANDS OF THE ABORTION INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX.

I WANT TO SEE HEALING FOR THOSE WHO HAVE CHOSEN ABORTION AND SUFFERED THE LOSS OF THEIR OWN CHILD, AND FOR THOSE WHO MOURN LOST SIBLINGS, COUSINS, OR OTHER FAMILY MEMBERS.

I WANT TO SEE HEALING FOR THE ABORTIONISTS, THE CLINIC WORKERS, AND THOSE IN THE CORPORATIONS WHO PARTICIPATED IN ABORTIONS, WHO SHOULD BE GIVEN THE SPACE TO COME TO TERMS WITH THEIR COMPLICITY, AND GRIEVE THE CHILDREN KILLED AND MISSING TODAY DUE TO THE VIOLENCE OF ABORTION.

I WANT TO SEE A JUSTICE SYSTEM THAT ACKNOWLEDGES THE LOSS OF COUNTLESS UNBORN CHILDREN, HELPS OFFENDERS MAKE RESTITUTION FOR THE HARM DONE, AND WORKS TOGETHER WITH FAMILIES AND COMMUNITIES TO HEAL AND MAKE ABORTION UNTHINKABLE.

THEREFORE, I WANT TO SEE RESTORATIVE JUSTICE PRACTICES INTEGRATED INTO ALL FUTURE LEGISLATION WHICH SEEKS TO LIMIT, RESTRICT, OR OUTLAW ABORTION.

MAJOR CHANGES SHOULD INCLUDE:

- CRIMES RELATING TO ABORTION MAY BELONG IN A FAMILY COURT OR OTHER SETTING OUTSIDE OF THE TRADITIONAL CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM
- THE JUDGE WOULD EXIST MORE AS A COUNSELOR AND LESS AS AN ARBITER OF PUNISHMENT
- THE INVOLVEMENT OF THE PREGNANT PERSON, PARTNER, FAMILIES, ABORTIONIST, CLINIC STAFF, AND COMMUNITY IN:
  - UNDERSTANDING THE COMPLEX SITUATIONS THAT PRECIPITATED THE ABORTION DECISION.
  - TACKLING THE ROOT OF WHY THIS VIOLENCE WAS PERPETRATED, AND ADDRESS THOSE SOCIAL ILLS
  - ACKNOWLEDGING THE HARM DONE
  - CONNECTING THEM TO POST-ABORTION HEALING AND CARE
- THE VICTIM'S VOICE IS HEARD AND THEIR CONCERNS ARE WEIGHED ON THE QUESTION OF RESTITUTION
- THE OFFENDER WOULD BE REQUIRED TO GO THROUGH AN AUTHENTIC PROCESS OF RECONCILIATION AND REBUILDING TRUST, INVOLVING:
  - AN AUTHENTIC APOLOGY FOR THE WRONGDOING
  - ADMITTING WHY THE HARM WAS WRONG AND HURTFUL
  - AN AMENDMENT OF CHANGE TO BEHAVIOR
  - MAKING RESTITUTION
  - ASKING FOR FORGIVENESS

PUBLISHED BY REHUMANIZE INTERNATIONAL

IT IS CRUCIAL TO INTEGRATE RESTORATIVE JUSTICE SOLUTIONS THAT RESPECT THE INHERENT DIGNITY AND ACCOUNT FOR THE CULPABILITY OF ALL. RETRIBUTIVE SYSTEMS WHICH BRING JUSTICE ONLY TO ABORTIONISTS LACK AN UNDERSTANDING OF HARM, TRAUMA, HEALING, AND THE INTRINSIC HUMAN DIGNITY OF EVERYONE INVOLVED.

A RESTORATIVE JUSTICE MODEL REQUIRES THE PARTICIPATION OF ALL OF THE DIFFERENT INDIVIDUALS AND INSTITUTIONS INVOLVED IN AND/OR IMPACTED BY THE ABORTION.

IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT EVERYONE WHO HAS PARTICIPATED IN AN ABORTION IS EQUIPPED WITH AMPLE LIFE-AFFIRMING TRAUMA-INFORMED RESOURCES SO THAT WE MAY STOP THE CYCLE OF VIOLENCE IN ITS TRACKS. BECAUSE OUR CURRENT JUSTICE SYSTEM — BASED ON A RETRIBUTIVE MODEL — FAILS TO ADDRESS THE SYSTEMIC ISSUES AND INDIVIDUAL TRAUMAS THAT CONTRIBUTE TO THE IMPETUS OF A CRIME, PEOPLE CONVICTED OF PAST CRIMES RECOMMIT AND RE-ENTER THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM TIME AND TIME AGAIN.

IF WE WANT TO END ABORTION, WE MUST HEAL THE CYCLE OF TRAUMA AND ADDRESS THE UNDERLYING REASONS WHY PEOPLE SEE THIS ACT OF VIOLENCE AS A SOLUTION. RESTORATIVE JUSTICE IS THE ANSWER.

Great questions DM'd to me!

Q: Can I oppose the exploitative practices of the abortion industry while being pro-choice?
A: Yes! You do not have to be anti-abortion to oppose the industry's capitalist priority of profits over people.

@survivors.la

Q: Do I have to endorse an alternative to capitalism to be anti-capitalist?
A: No! You can reject capitalism without preferring another economic model.

"The liberalism at the heart of the pro-life campaign, however, is constantly distorted by a generation of scholars who have insisted the right-to-life movement is really about the preservation of traditional gender roles or male control over female sexuality. Such interpretations tend to ignore that the right to life movement regards itself as today's civil-rights movement. The failure to grasp this reality renders the passion and dedication of the pro-life movement almost impossible to comprehend.
I believe that many scholars of abortion have resisted this conclusion because they find it difficult to entertain the possibility that these conservatives might be agents in progressive history. In their view, conservatives are by definition reactionaries to the civil-rights movement, not its heirs. Meanwhile, the pro-choice movement is a conservative movement defending the status quo. Pro-choicers have little to gain from engaging their opponents and from the deliberative norms that facilitate persuasion."

-Jon Shields,
political scientist

Like other kinds of civil rights movements, the movement to give our prenatal children equal protection of the law will be resisted by both men and women who see such protection as a threat to their power, a threat to their ability to live life as they would prefer. Such people (as we will see, they are often men) benefit from the fact that the dignity of the prenatal child remains largely invisible in our culture. But those of us who are interested in justice cannot let the powerful keep us from working for equal protection of the law for all people, especially the most vulnerable and dependent.

Oscar Wilde said, "Everything in the world is about sex, except sex. Sex is about power."

Abortion, contrary to appearances, isn't about sex; it is power. Look at the abortion industry through the lens of power dynamics. Late-stage capitalism applies here, too. Profit is the motive. Abortion is profitable; profit is capital; capital is power. Follow the money.

Hannah Gadsby said, "The only people who lose their humanity are those believe they have the right to render another human being powerless."

When we dehumanize the unborn, we render them powerless. Abortion is abuse of power. It has always been used as a tool of oppression and weapon of violence by the powerful against the vulnerable. When our liberation costs vulnerable lives, it is merely oppression redistributed.

Nietzsche said, "All things are subject to interpretation. Whichever interpretation prevails at a given time is a function of power and not of truth."

Your interpretation of the humanity of the unborn is a function of your power and not of their truth. Remain critical of the slogans we've been sold, my friends.

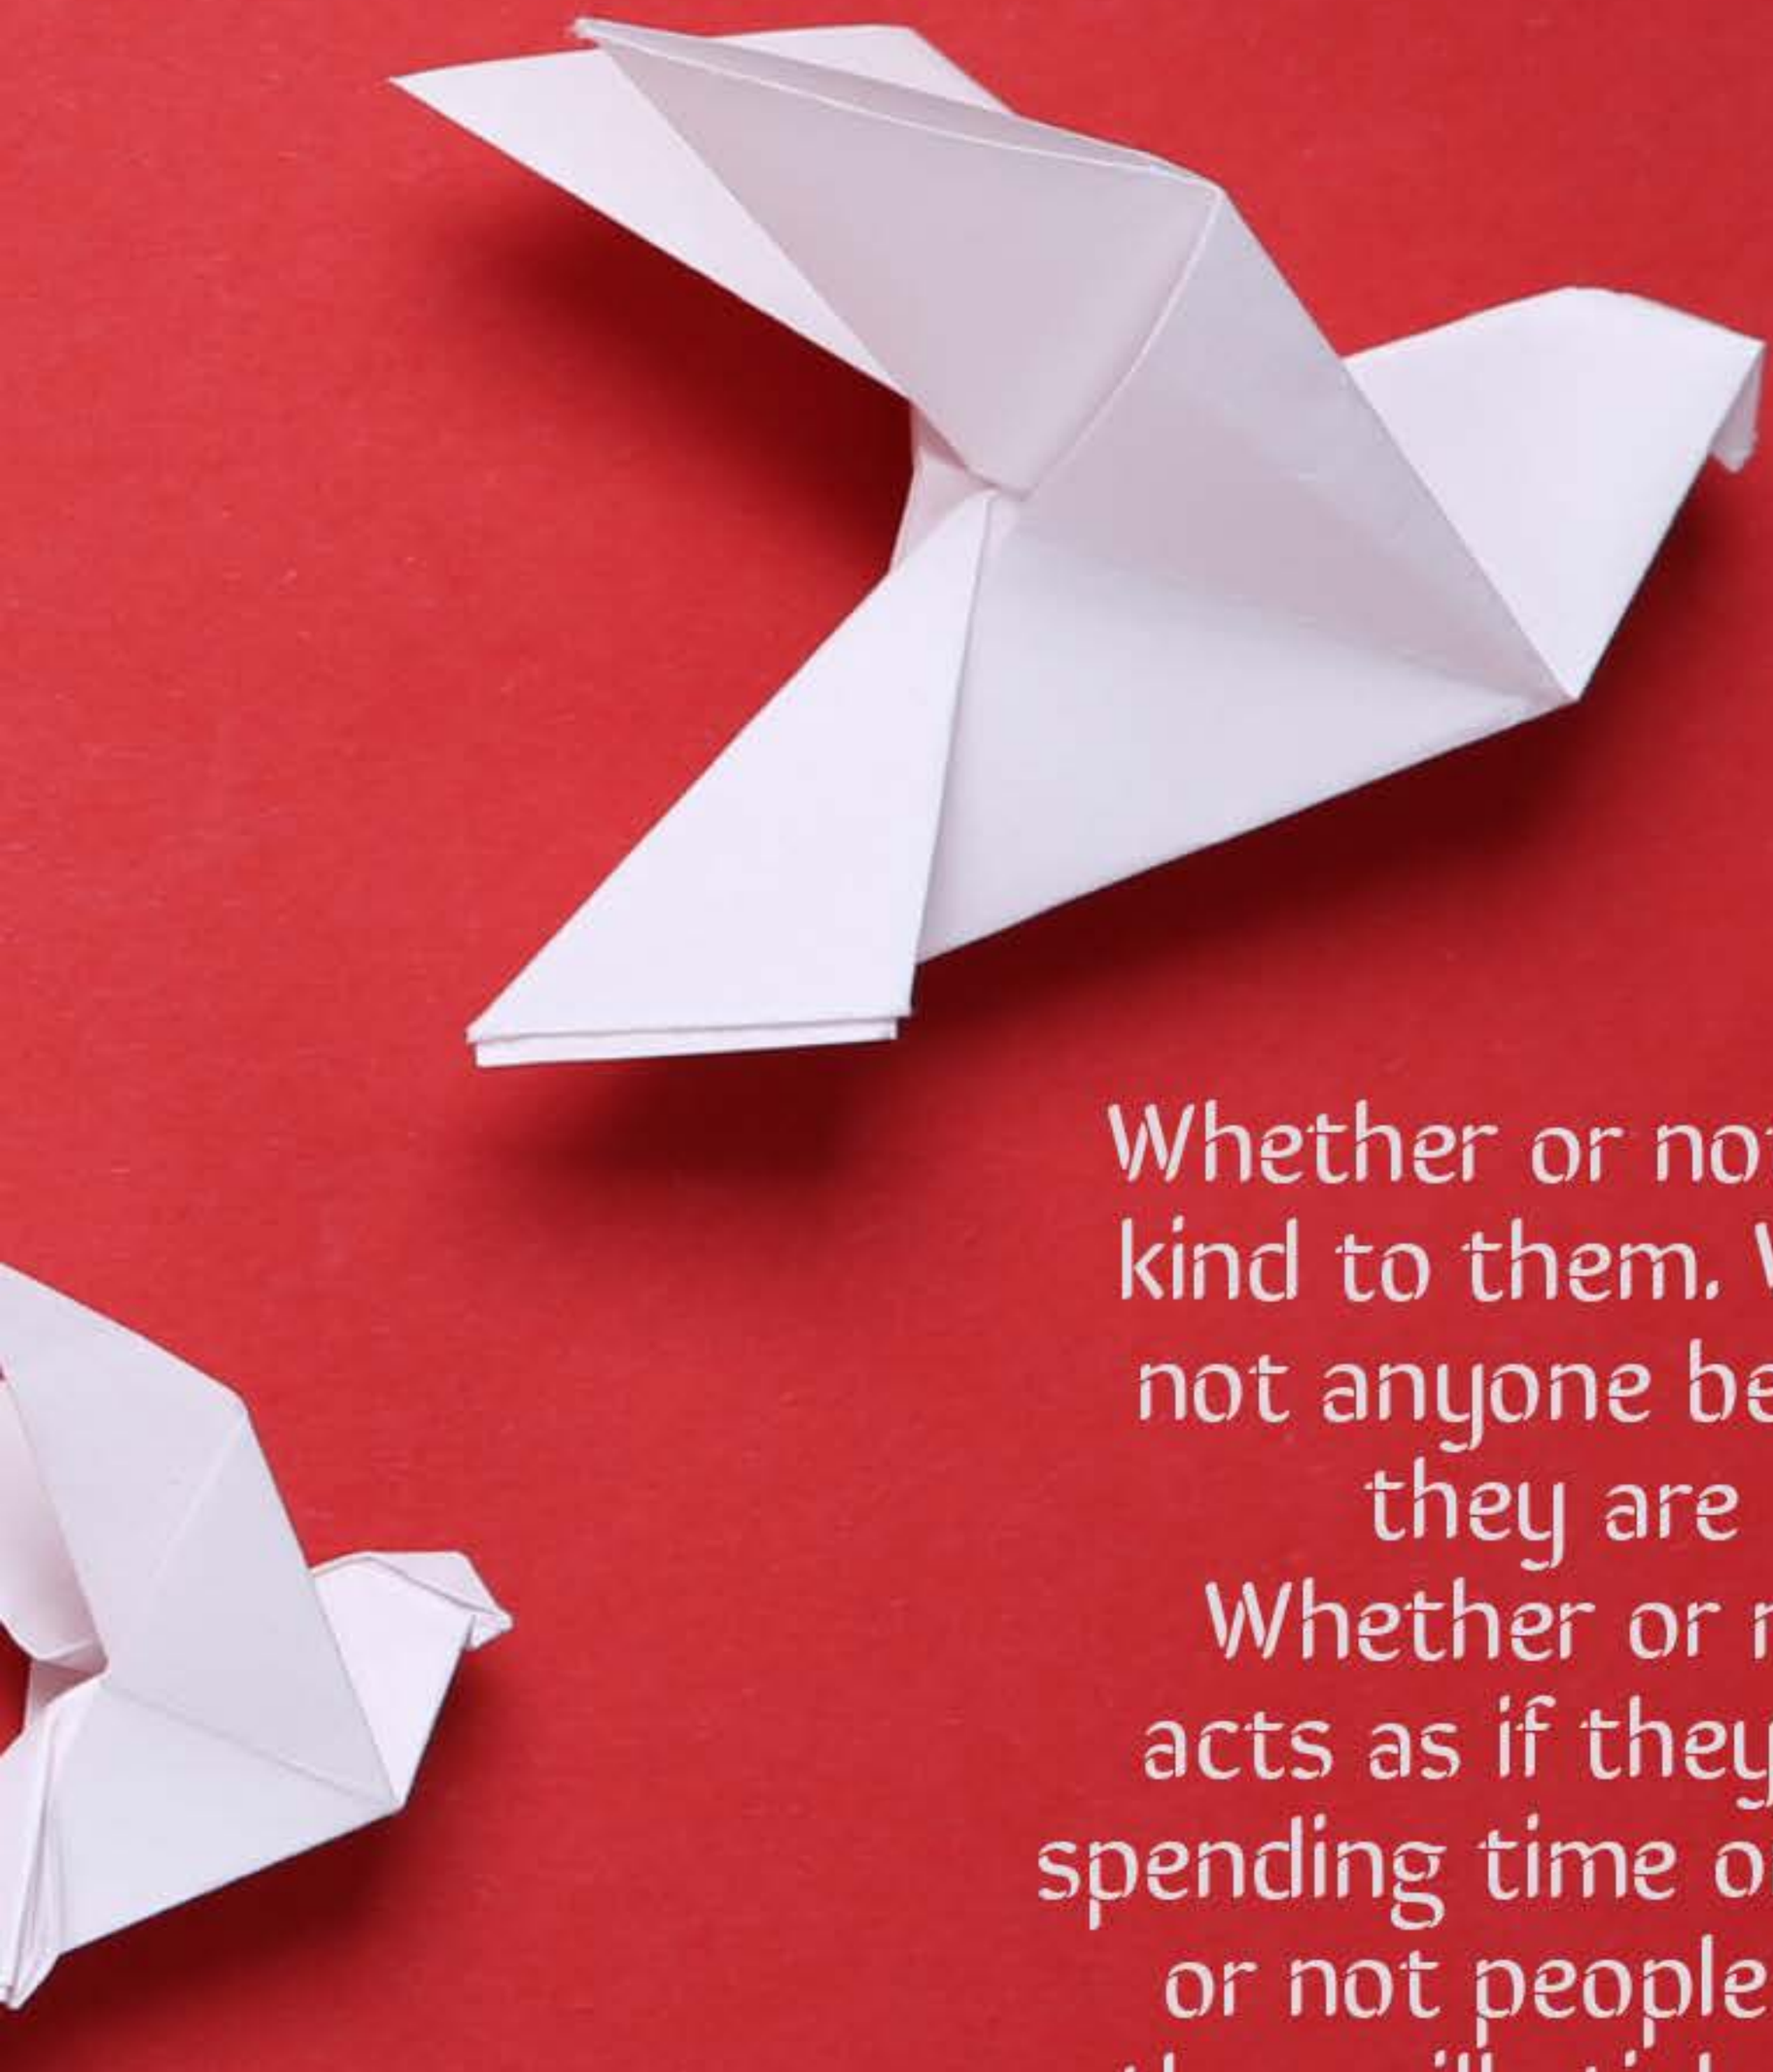
"...in real life, abortion happens because there are victims on both sides and weakness everywhere... Those with good intentions are left with a mop-up operation, trying to choose the least bad when there is nothing clearly good to choose from. That is what abortion often looks like in real life...

—Simcha Fisher

women being pushed into lives where they are punished endlessly for having bodies that are not like men's.

It is a terrible world, sometimes. Abortion makes it more terrible. But I understand why it can seem like the only solution, when problems are so deeply ingrained in the structure of society, and any hope or solace seems so far away.

When lives are at stake—the lives of babies and the lives of their mothers—what makes the difference is probably less often abortion law and more often things like whether or not women have a place to live and food to eat, a job, child care, health care.



Whether or not anyone is kind to them. Whether or not anyone behaves as if they are important. Whether or not anyone acts as if they are worth spending time on. Whether or not people show that they will stick with them.

This has always been the case, and always will be, no matter what the law says. This is pro-life work anyone can do. This is pro-life work no one could be embarrassed to be associated with. This is the work we cannot allow ourselves to step away from, no matter what else happens next."

Women and their babies deserve better.

Regardless of where you stand politically, religiously, or ideologically, we can and must agree that women deserve better, women deserve whatever support necessary to thrive in their situation of a crisis, difficult, or unwanted pregnancy or family circumstance.

I want to implore you to pursue practical help for women, to speak with compassion over judgement, hope over fear, respect over bullying. Imagine how much more we could help women if we worked together.

Whether you support abortion or not doesn't change the fact that every day thousands women make abortion appointments out of places of valid fear and need: lacking resources, facing judgement, wanting to accomplish personal or career goals, devoid of emotional support in their relationships.

We have to be willing to unite if we want to build a society that truly supports its own people.

y'all ain't even talkin bout the same thing. powerful people designed our system to disempower women to the point that we must demand abortion to survive and sublimate its reality, which is the killing of powerless preborn people. profits from abortion reinforce the status quo of the system. to break this cycle we must reject abortion while empowering women to survive.

You recognize "personhood" is an illegitimate construct which historically enabled crimes against humanity, and you think it should never qualify classes of illegal humans. You learned human zygotes meet the biological definition of living organisms. Thus, you understand that personhood cannot exclude any prenatal human organisms from the natural right to not be killed.

You classify the act of abortion as a human rights violation because you know all methods of abortion violently end the life of a human being. You acknowledge abortion results in unnatural, intentional death and thus fits the criteria of killing, not refusal of bodily support.

You're aware that abortion institutions were established to advance eugenics, and that this intent has resulted in systematic eradication of oppressed populations in certain regions. You discern this as stage eight of the Ten Stages of Genocide and comprehend the grave urgency of this injustice.

You identify women and others who procure abortions as victims of social, cultural, and economic force, NOT as murderers. You are disgusted by the indoctrination of prenatal homicide through industry propaganda.

You see this issue as universal to humanity. You feel a duty to aid. You refuse to be silenced. Stand for truth. Mobilize. Spread hope.

DO NOT REPRODUCE

I will no longer indulge perspectives that deny the humanity of any human being,
devalue any human life, or exploit vulnerable humans.
Humanity is intrinsic.
Life matters.
Power is not worthiness.
I will never accept perceived value, vulnerability, or humanity of a human as justification for violence against them.
I will refuse to act from a place of fear.

THEIR HUMANITY ARE THOSE

RIGHT TO RENDER ANOTHER
HUMAN BEING POWERLESS."
